On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer an nendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the lerk.

The amendment was read as follows:

Amend section 1, line 132, by striking out the words "one llar" and inserting the words "fifty cents;" in line 133, rike out the word "fifty" and insert the word "fifteen;" line 176 strike out the word "ten" and insert the word ix."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. FREY. Mr. Speaker, some time ago this House de- ated a fee bill presented by me, and upon the matter of e offering of amendments by Mr. Rockwell at that time I ade no objection, for the reason that the fee bill was pre- nted and drawn against my protest. In the matter of e serving of subpoenas it seems to me that the officers re entitled to an increase. At the present time the heriffs receive ten cents for each mile and one dollar r the first witness and fifty cents for each additional itness. This bill provides for the payment of the same mount to constables and sheriffs. I do not see why a con- table should not receive the same amount of money for oing the same work. It is the same work and he should eceive the same compensation. I would therefore ask at these amendments be voted down.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, the amendments I have ffered to this bill simply provides this: Under the pre- ent law the constable is entitled to fifty cents for serv- g a subpoena for the first name. For the second name nd each succeeding name he received fifteen cents. This ill provides that he shall get one dollar for the first wit- ess and fifty cents for each additional witness. This is an nwarranted raise. it seems to me, and the bill should not ass in its present shape. This bill provides that the con- tables shall get ten cents for every mile of travel. The mendment I have offered strikes out the word "ten" and nserts the word "six." This House has passed a bill educing the sheriff's fees to the same amount as contained n this amendment I have offered to this bill, and it seems o me for this House to be consistent, that it should allow hese amendments to go in.

Mr. FREY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate he gentleman.

The SPEAKER Will the gentleman from Tioga, Mr. ockwell, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. FREY. I desire to ask whether the reduction in he sheriff's fees does not only apply to certain counties?

Mr ROCKWELL. Yes sir, to counties with a population f 130,000.

On the question.

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER announced that the nays appeared to ave it. A division having been called for and 43 mem- ers, less than a majority of a quorum, having voted in the ffirmative, the amendment was not agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

The SPEAKER announced that the yeas appeared to ave it. A division having been called for and 51 mem- ers, less than a majority of a quorum, having voted in he affirmative, this being the enacting clause, the section as not agreed to and the bill falls.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. DERSHEM. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer an amend- ent.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the erk.

The amendment was read as follows:

Amend section 1, line 77, after the characters "$15.00" sert the following "for motor vehicles of thirty horse wer or more and less than forty $20.00."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

Mr. MARVIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer a further nendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the erk.

The amendment was read as follows:

Amend section one by striking out in lines 86 and 87 the ords "for a period of ten days."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. DERSHEM. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interro- te the gentleman.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Pike, Mr. Mar- n, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MARVIN. Yes, sir.

Mr. DERSHEM. I would like to know why the gentle- an wishes to strike out the words indicated?

Mr. MARVIN. I offered this amendment for the simple reason that in other States they have no limiting provision in their law, and I think the reciprocity act should be carried into other States. They allow us to go into the other States without paying any tax, and I think we should extend the same courtesy to them.

Mr. DERSHEM. I do not see any reason why this bill should be changed because it seems to me that people coming into our city should pay for the use of the streets after a period of ten days. It does look to me as though this amendment should be voted down.

The question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was not agreed to.

The question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section as first amended?

It was agreed to.

The second section was read and agreed to as follows:

Section 2 That section twenty-one of the said act which reads as follows

"Section 21 The revenue derived from the registration of motor-vehicles and from licensing operators thereof under the provisions of this act shall be paid by the State Highway Department to the State Treasurer to be used for the improvement of the roads of this Commonwealth" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 21 The revenues derived from the registration of motor-vehicles and from licensing operators thereof under the provisions of this act shall be paid by the State Highway Department to the State Treasurer to be used for the improvement of the roads of this Commonweatlh and the maintenance thereof

The title was read and agreed to as follows:

An act to amend sections two and twenty-one of an act entitled "An Act relating to motor vehicles regulating their speed upon the public streets and highways of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania providing for their registration and the licensing of operators by the State Highway Department establishing the rights of motor vehicles upon the public highways with relation to other vehicles regulating the service of process and of proceedings in actions for damages arising therefrom prescribing the penalties for violation of the provisions of this act and providing for the disposition of fines imposed thereunder" approved April twenty-seventh Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and nine

APPROVAL OF CONCURRENT RESOLUTION.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, Pa., May 9, 1911.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:—I have the honor to advise you that I have this day approved and signed Concurrent Resolution from the Senate and House of Representatives recalling from the Governor, for the purpose of amendment, House Bill No. 356, entitled :

An act defining the offence of train wrecking or attempted train wrecking and providing the punishment therefor

JOHN K. TENER.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE ON HOUSE BILL NO. 356.

Mr. JAMES HUNTER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 356 passed finally be reconsidered.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

Mr. JAMES HUNTER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

Mr. YOUNG. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. JAMES HUNTER. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Section One, line twenty-two by inserting before the word "offender" the words "offense shall constitute the offense of malicious injury to railroads, and every such."

Amend by adding after section one the following, to be marked and known as section two:

Section 2 That sections one hundred forty-two and one hundred forty-three of an act approved the thirty-first day of March, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, entitled "An Act to consolidate, revise and amend the penal laws of this Commonwealth," and an act approved the twenty-sixth day of May, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, entitled "An Act defining the offense of the taking of human life through the wilful and malicious wrecking of cars and locomotives upon railroads in this Commonwealth," and all other acts or parts of acts inconsistent with or supplied by this act or any part thereof, are hereby repealed.

Amend the title by striking out the title and substituting in lieu thereof the following:

"An Act defining what shall constitute the malicious injury to railroads, providing the punishment therefor, fixing the punishment in case of loss of life as a result of such offense, and repealing sections one hundred and forty-two and one hundred and forty-three of an act approved the 31st day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, entitled "An Act defining the offense of the taking of human life through the wilful and malicious wrecking of cars and locomotives upon railroads in this Commonwealth."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to insert the amendment as read? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none and the amendment will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

The bill as amended was then agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Mr. ALTER in the chair.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

he Chair cleared his table and laid before the Senate nunication in writing from His Excellency, the Gov- r of the Commonwealth, filed with the Chief Clerk dur- the interim, which read as follows:

VETO OF SENATE BILL 319.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber ,Harrisburg, May 13, 1911.

e Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:
tlemen:—I return herewith without my approval Senate bill No. ntitled "A supplement to an act entitled 'An Act for the govern- of cities of the second class' approved the seventh day of March Domini one thousand nine hundred and one creating and regulat- Forestry Department" s bill provides that nothing therein contained shall be construed thorizing the proposed commission to interfere with or exercise ol over any public park The second section of the bill authorizes ommission to adopt a plan for the planting or removal of shade along any highway and to proceed with the work and apportion st of the same to each abutting property according to the amount e expenditure made in front of the same and upon failure of the ing property owners to pay the amounts assessed by the com- on to have municipal liens filed for the same The third section e bill proposes to confer upon cities of the second class the power ninent domain for the purpose of acquiring land for public use en and ornamental spaces in such cities

my judgment this legislation is unnecessary for the reason that existing legislation cities of the second class have full power to re lands and premises for public parks and to govern and main- the same and likewise have full power "to regulate the planting protection of shade trees in the streets" For these reasons the not approved

JOHN K. TENER.

n the question,

hall the bill pass, the objections of the Governor to contrary notwithstanding?

r. WILBERT. Mr. President, I move that the ques- , together with the consideration of this bill, be post- ed for the present.

r. GERBERICH. Mr. President, I second the motion.

n the question,

ill the Senate agree to the motion?

r. HERBST. Mr. President, I move to amend that Governor be sustained.

r. HALL. Mr. President, I second the motion.

he PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Wilbert, accept the amendment?

r. WILBERT. Mr. President, I do not care particu- to agree to the amendment and I would ask that motion prevail at this time. I want the further con- ration of the veto postponed for the present. I don't w that there is any necessity to take the action that friend suggests in this matter. I do not know what purpose is, other than he might want to have somebody n record, as he usually does.

r. HERBST. Mr. President, does the Senator want to rrogate me?

r. WILBERT. Mr. President. No, I do not.

he PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Berks, Mr. bst, insist upon his amendment?

r. HERBST. Mr. President, I move to amend the ion by sustaining the Governor.

n the question,

ill the Senate agree to the amendment?

r. HERBST. Mr. President, I call for the yeas and s on this question.

r. McNICHOL. Mr. President, I think this is a non- ical proceeding. The Senator from Pittsburg, Mr. Wil- , asks that the consideration of this veto be postponed the present. I think it is a courtesy that we owe to Senator, whether from Pittsburg, from Berks or from Elk, or any other place in Pennsylvania. I think that it is a nonsensical proceeding to ask a division of a vote on the question, as to-morrow morning we will be asked possibly to sustain the veto of the Governor. If it were a question of sustaining the Governor I would certainly vote to sustain the veto.

A division was called for, and eleven Senators voting in the affirmative and fifteen in the negative it was not agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the original motion?

It was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE MANUFACTURERS' CLUB OF PHILADELPHIA.

The Chair cleared his table and laid before the Senate communication in writing from the Manufacturers' Club of Philadelphia, which was read as follows and referred to the Committee on Judiciary Special:

MANUFACTURERS' CLUB OF PHILADELPHIA.

May 8 1911

To the Honorable the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met

This Memorial of the Manufacturers' Club of Philadelphia respectfully represents

That the Manufacturers' Club through a committee has carefully examined the provisions of the various bills before the State Legislature extending the liability of employers for injuries sustained by employes in the course of their employment and establishing a schedule of compensation for such injuries

That the Club recognizes that present economic conditions may justify an amelioration of the conditions which now surround the question of compensation to workmen for disabilities arising from accidents to them

That the Club while agreeing to the principle involved in the foregoing statement objects to the passage of the bills now being considered believing such drastic legislation changing the long established laws of the State should not be undertaken in the short time at the disposal of the Legislature

That an act authorizing the appointment of a commis on to make inquiry into all questions involved in indus al accidents and the compensation of the victims thereo is desirable and it is believed that if passed it will secure he preparation and submission of a bill that may furnis a satisfactory solution of the problems involved and secure a wise n- promise between employers and the employed and their divergent ws in relation thereto therefore

Your Memorialist the Manufacturers Club of Philadelphia earn ly petitions your Honorable Bodies to defer action upon the various ls now being considered in relation to Employers' Liability and early ct a bill providing for the appointment of a commission to consid he various questions at issue in the problem of compensating empl es for injuries received in the course of their employment

And your Memorialist will ever pray

Yours very truly

COMMUNICATION FROM THE COMMERCIAL EXCHANGE PHILADELPHIA.

The Chair cleared his table and laid before the Sen e a communication in writing from the Commercial Excha e of Philadelphia, received by the President of the Sena which was read as follows and referred to the Commit e on Judiciary Special.

THE COMMERCIAL EXCHANGE OF PHILADELPHIA.

Philadelphia May 13 19

Honorable President of the Senate
State of Pennsylvania
Harrisburg Pa

Dear Sir: I have the honor to enclose herewith as instructed by Board of Directors of this Association a copy of the Memorial adop by that body at its meeting on the eleventh instant

Very truly yours
F E MARSHALL Secretar

THE COMMERCIAL EXCHANGE OF PHILADELPHIA.

Philadelphia, May 13, 1911

To the Honorable, the Senate and House of Representatives of State of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met:—

This Memorial of the Commercial Exchange of Philadelphia resp fully represents:—

That there are certain bills now before the State Legislature exte ing the liability of employes for injuries sustained by employees in course of their employment and establishing a schedule of compensat for such injuries which, if enacted, would result in the establishm of hasty and ill-considered laws, because of the lack of the necess time to give such important measures their adequate consideration, that the true and impartial effect of such legislation would not res therefrom in the present circumstances, and

Believing, with similar associations of merchants and others, t the appointment of a commission to make inquiry into all questio involved in industrial accidents, and the compensation of the victi thereof, and their survivors, is most desirable, because it will sec more efficient action toward the desired end, both for employers a their employees and doubtless a wise compromise of divergent vie that are not solved in the present measures; therefore

Your Memorialist, the Commercial Exchange of Philadelphia, earne ly petitions your Honorable Bodies to defer action upon the vario bills now under consideration, and to enact at an early date a providing for the appointment of a commission to consider the va o important questions at stake and in the problems that are to be ed:

ad your Memorialist will ever pray, etc.

y the Board of Directors of the Commercial Exchange of Philaphia, at its meeting of May 11th, 1911.

SAMUEL L. McKNIGHT,
President.

RANK E. MARSHALL,
Secretary.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE POSTPONED FOR THE PRESENT.

Mr. WILBERT. Mr. President, I move that the Senate resume the consideration of Senate Bill No. 407, on final passage, postponed for the present, entitled:

An act for the better protection of wild birds and game within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania requiring all citizens of the United States residing within this State to procure a license before using guns for the purpose of hunting for any wild bird or animals within this Commonwealth and providing penalties for the violation of its several provisions and the manner of proceeding to enforce compliance therewith and providing for the disposition of the license fees fines and penalties received

Mr. ADAMS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring?

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HERBST. Mr. President, in calling up these bills out of order sometimes, Senators make mistakes, as well as I have done already. Now, this Hunters' License Bill, in other words taxing every hunter one dollar, so that every Senator knows just how he votes.

Mr. MARTIN. Mr. President, I am opposed to this bill from the fact that it imposes a tax upon a poor man. I trust the Senators will vote it down. Not only that, but I will include as part of my remarks a letter: "Mr. Martin is very strong against this bill, but he will come all right or we will make him feel bad some day." Now, I do not propose to be dictated to by any sporting association, and I hope you will vote it down.

Mr. HALL. Mr. President, I also am against this bill, perhaps not on the same grounds the Senator speaks of, but it has come to a pretty pass when a few fellows who claim they are a gun association can dictate to the State of Pennsylvania who shall carry a gun. Examine this act. He is liable to a fine unless he goes out to shoot at a target. If you catch him with a gun he is guilty. I have other reasons. There is a petition signed by thirty thousand people against this bill. It is somewhere in Harrisburg. I am absolutely opposed to the bill. Take, for instance, the farmer boy. They said they would amend it so as to take care of the boys, amend it so as to take care of the boys who hunt on their own ground. If a fellow has a gun it is evidence prima facie against him. Take, for instance, a farmer's boy. He goes after a rabbit, a cotton-tail rabbit, and happens to cross a line and kills it on his neighbor's ground, then he is liable to a fine of twenty dollars immediately. That is simply an outrage. Now, in connection with that, I desire to say that I have a letter here and which I want the Clerk to read. If there is any man that says I have not been a sportsman, and any man who says I have not backed the Game Commissioners he does not know what he is talking about. Dr. Kalbfus would not say that I have not backed him in every respect. He cannot. And Dr. Kalbfus is not for this, or tells me he is not. This is not the Game Commission's bill. A few people in the western part of the State want this bill. Dr. Kalbfus did not help to draw this bill. I would like to have a letter read by the Clerk if the Clerk will read this letter. This fellow would certainly lick me if I did not do what he wants me to do. I want to say to the members of the Senate that he is out of his jurisdiction.

The Clerk read as follows:

PHILLIPS MINE AND MILL SUPPLY CO.,
Manufacturers of
MINE, MILL & COKE WORKS EQUIPMENT
Office 2227 Jane Street.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 13th, 1911.

Senator J. K. P. Hall,
Harrisburg, Penna.

Dear Senator:—When the Pennsylvania sportsmen took up the $1.00 Resident Hunters' License Bill, which they drew up and are now pushing, they called me, as a member of the Game Commission, into consultation, and when they asked how you would vote on the present Senate Bill I told them that you were a personal friend and had always stood with the Game Commission on appropriations, especially for bounties on noxious animals, and as the Bill provided that one-half of the revenue raised must be paid for bounties, which would give your constituents almost four times the amount the State usually appropriated, that you would certainly be for it, but if you weren't you would plainly give your reasons and fight openly against it.

I was surprised yesterday when my attention was called by the Sportsmen's Committee to the fact that George D. Herbert is your Private Secretary and had in his possession a letter which I wrote to you on the 6th inst.

Mr. Herbert is editor of a magazine published at Harrisburg which has been attacking the Game Commission and your friend Doctor Kalbfus, principally through anonymous letters. All I have to say in regard to these scurrilious attacks is that owing to the efforts of the Game Commission and its officers game protection has cost the State practically nothing this year, and the Commission's books are open to the public.

Mr. Liggett, a member of the sportsmen's committee, taking over the matter yesterday, said:

"Mr. J. P. K. Hall, exercising his right as a citizen and using his best business sense, has established a grand game reserve in Elk county and placed men in charge to protect his game and exterminate noxious animals. Sportsmen exercising the same right, propose to organize a state-wide club, and stock, protect and propagate game on our million acre Forest Reserve, the initiation fee in which will be $1.00, which can be paid by the country boy killing a weasel (which destroys much more game than he does during the season). This would give to the common people for $1.00 what costs Senator Hall thousands per year. As to the bounty which the Senator is so anxious for, Allegheny and Philadelphia counties paid together in 1909 to the State about $6,000,000.00 in taxes, while Elk county, the Senator's home county, paid in the same year about $18,000.00 and received in bounties from the State about $1500.00 or almost one-tenth of the amount paid in, while Allegheny and Philadelphia counties received the munificent sum of $418.00. So it is time for the people of the counties not interested in bounties to wake up and the sportsmen propose to do the awakening. Now that the Senator's secretary praises the Senator in his magazine for opposing the true sportsmen of the State, we must get to the Senator's constituents and explain the matter throughly and truthfully and th fight will not end at the present session of the Legislature."

With Mr. Herbert's style of ammunition he may have deceived y and your constituents, but I am sorry the matter has gotten into th shape and hoped this session of the Legislature would put our ga protection and propagation on a solid business basis so we could hand our wild game as sensibly as the farmer does his domestic fowls a animals. These Game Commission matters interfere with my busine and I expected to retire this year, but if the Governor sees fit to r appoint me I will stay with my friends to the finish.

Your friend,
JNO. M. PHILLIPS.

There is the letter. It is true that I have been e gaged in an attempt to protect the game in this State, an particularly in my own section have spent hundreds of do lars without asking aid for anything to destroy obnoxiou animals and to protect the game up there, but when a ge tleman says he is going to be reappointed, or if the Gov ernor does reappoint him he will stand by them, and whe he says my constituents will take care of me, he does no know what he is talking about. I will take care of m own constituents. I am against this bill.

Mr. WILBERT. Mr. President, I introduced this bill a the request of some of the sportsmen of the State. I wa under the impression that every sportsman would favo this bill. I made rather close inquiry as to the sentimen not only throughout Pennsylvania, but throughout the othe States. I have in my possession a letter from the Unite States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. would be pleased to have the Clerk read the communi cation.

The Clerk read as follows:

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
Bureau of Biological Survey
Washington, D. C.

April 10, 1911.

Hon. David A. Wilbert,
Senate Chamber,
Harrisburg, Pa.

Dear Sir:—At the request of the Game Commission I attended a hearin a few days ago on the bill providing for a resident hunting license, an I beg to submit herewith a brief statement in regard to legislation o this kind.

1. GENERAL ADOPTION OF THE RESIDENT HUNTER'S LICENSE

The first resident hunting license law was adopted in 1895. In th 16 years which have since elapsed nearly two thirds of the states hav adopted the system until at present residents are required to obtai hunting licenses in 34 states and 6 Canadian provinces. These license are now required in every state west of the Mississippi river, excep Arkansas and Arizona; and in every state north of Mason and Dixon' Line except Maine, Ohio, and Pennsylvania. A bill is pending in Ohio and in Delaware a similar measure was passed only a few weeks ago Conditions in Pennsylvania do not differ sufficiently from those i New Jersey, New York, Indiana, Illinois, and Wisconsin, to render in applicable a system which has worked so well in these states.

2. THE RESIDENT LICENSE IS DIRECTLY IN THE FARMER' INTEREST.

Opposition to the resident license is usually based on misapprehen sion or ignorance of the results accomplished in states which hav actually adopted laws of this kind. It has been found that the resi dent license provides (without expense to the state) a warden forc which protects the farmer against irresponsible hunting and assist him in dealing with trespassers. With a provision allowing a landowner or tenant to hunt on his own premises without a license (suc as is incorporated in the present bill) the main point of objection i removed. In this connection it is significant that the first residen licenses were adopted in North Dakota and Michigan, and the experiment was soon after tried in Wisconsin, Minnesota, Wyoming, Nebraska, and South Dakota. In other words the system originated i the great agriculture states of the northwest and has since spread t nearly all of the important agricultural states both in the west and in the north.

3. BENEFITS OF THE HUNTING LICENSE.

A resident hunting license affords protection:

(a) By providing a system for registering all persons hunting of their own property, thus making it possible to follow up cases of trespass, irresponsible shooting, or hunting accidents.

(b) By providing a system which can be utilized to determine the amount of game annually killed.

(c) By providing, without expense to the state, a warden force capable of preventing lawlessness during the hunting season.

For these benefits a resident of the state pays the sum of $1 per annum, providing he hunts off his own property. If he does not hunt or does not go off his premises for the purpose he is not required to pay anything.

4. PROBABLE RECEIPTS UNDER A HUNTING LICENSE LAW IN PENNSYLVANIA.

Estimates based on such statistics as are available for states in various parts of the country indicate that under ordinary circumstances about 3 per cent of the total population may be expected to take out hunting licenses. In some of the states in the west, particularly Idaho and Montana, the proportion reaches 10 per ecnt. but in states like New York, Pennsylvania, and Illinois, where a considerable part of the population is massed in large cities, the perecntage of hunters is necessarily smaller. In the case of Pennsylvania, the estimate may fairly be placed at 2 per cent. With a population of 7,665,111 (Census of 1910) the number of persons who may be expected to take out hunting licenses may be estimated at 150,000 and at $1.00 each these licenses would produce a revenue of about $150,000. Allowing for cost of printing and distribution the net revenue may be safely estimated at $125,-

0. By way of comparison it is interesting to note the receipts actually llected in six states for the years 1909 or 1910.

State	Hunting Season	Population	License Receipts
alifornia,	1909	2,377,549	$126,734
laho,	1910	325,594	35,688
wa,	1910	2,224,771	107,377
lissouri,	1909	3,203,335	96,763
ew York,	1909	9,113,279	141,219
Visconsin,	1909	2,233,860	103,701

In conclusion it may be noted that although the license system has nly been in effect a few years and is necessarily still in an experiiental stage only one or two states have ever repealed such a law fter once enacting it. The hunting license system is not only spreadig rapidly, but is increasing in popularity and has already placed the ame warden service on a self supporting basis in a number of the tates.

T. S. PALMER,

In the House of Representatives, May 15, 1911.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That five hundred copies (500) be printed, containing the memorial addresses of the late Hon. J. Calvin Meyer, delivered in this House evening of May 10, 1911. And that every member of the House of Representatives and Senate be supplied with one copy.

Mr. STEIN offered the following resolution, which was twice read and referred to the Committee on Judiciary General.

RESOLUTION.

REQUESTING U. S. SENATORS FROM PENNSYLVANIA TO SUPPORT THE RESOLUTION NOW PENDING IN CONGRESS FOR THE ABROGATION OF THE TREATY BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA.

Whereas, In the treaties and conventions now existing between the United States of America and the Government of Russia, it is provided that the inhabitants of each country shall mutually have the liberty to enter, sojourn and reside in the respective territories of each other, and to that effect shall enjoy the same security and protection as natives of the country wherein they reside; and

Whereas, The Government of Russia has singled out a certain class of citizens and inhabitants of the United States, and forbidden them from sojourning or residing in, or entering into the territory or dominion of Russia, on account of their religious faith; and

Whereas, The severest penalties are visited upon those who in any manner violate this edict of the Russian Government, so that an American citizen of the prescribed faith, with an American passport, who should cross the borders of the Russian territory would, under the penal code of Russia, be subjected to the most cruel punishment, without the privilege of the trial, by jury, and

Whereas, It is the fundamental principle of this Government that the rights of its citizens shall not be impaired at home or abroad because of religious belief; that this government concludes its treaties for the equal protection of all classes of its citizens, without regard to religious belief; that the government of Russia has violated the treaty between the United States of America and Russia concluded at St. Petersburg, December 18th, 1832, by construing the part of Article I. thereof which says that the inhabitants of the respective States "shall be at liberty to sojourn and reside in all parts whatsoever of said territories in order to attend their affairs, and they shall enjoy to that effect the same security and protection as natives of the country wherein they reside, on condition of their submitting to the laws and ordinances there prevailing, and particularly to the regulations in force concerning commerce;" to mean that American citizens of Jewish faith are subject in Russia to the same restrictions that Russia imposes upon Russian inhabitants of Jewish faith, by declining to permit American citizens of Jewish faith to sojourn and reside in Russia in order to attend to their affairs and to enjoy to the effect the same security and protection as non-Jewish native Russians, and by refusing to honor American passports issued to Americans of Jewish faith, and

Whereas, Such distinction would be abhorrent to all the people who believe in the right of men to worship according to the dictates of conscience; therefore,

Resolved by the Senate of the State of Pennsylvani the House of Representatives concurring, That we here request our two United States Senators representing t great State of Pennsylvania, to request the President of t United States to abrogate the treaty between the government of Russia and the United States of America and tha a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to our Senato at Washington, urging them to support the resolution no pending in the National House of Representatives for th abrogation of said treaty.

Mr. HILTON offered the following resolution, which wa twice read and laid over under the rulues:

RESOLUTION.

THAT COMMITTEE ON RAILROADS BE DISCHARGED FRO FURTHER CONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL NO. 346.

That the Committee on Railroads be discharged fro further consideration of Senate Bill No. 346 entitled "A Act declaring the liability of railroad companies for los or damage by fire, providing a remedy therefor and relating to evidence thereof," for the reason that more tha ten (10) legislative days have elapsed since its referenc to said committee.

Mr. M. CLYDE KELLY offered the following resolutio which was twice read and referred to the Committee on Centennial Affairs:

RESOLUTION.

RELATIVE TO APPOINTMENT OF INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE.

Whereas, It has been openly charged and published tha this House has on its list of employees a number of persons who perform little or no service in return for th salaries paid them by the State, and also that newspape correspondents have been given official positions and pai from State funds for the purpose and with the result o their practising the art of deceiving the public with biase and tainted news, and

Whereas, a controlled or enslaved press is fatal to free State, since it not only hides the true light, in whic case the public might simply stand still, but it sets u a false light that decoys the public to danger and destruction, and

Whereas, It appears that the organization in control o this House has taken all appointments to itself and tha the smallest and most minor position is a possession, whic none may touch or criticize, and

Whereas, When any party organization creates unnecessary offices and positions and seeks to divert public office and positions instituted solely for the benefit of the people to its own service and benefit, it strikes at one of the most vital principles of a free government and turns this law-making body into an office broker and spoils monger, and

Whereas, This House believes that both justice and economy demand the fullest publicity of the facts in this connection, desires the correction of abuses and the introduction of needed improvements, and wishes not only to maintain its own dignity but also to still the scandals which are torturing the nostrils of our own citizens and disgracing the State in the eyes of the nation, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, that a committee of five members of said House be appointed by the Speaker, said committee to consist of not more than two members of the same political party, to investigate fully the charges given above and make written report of its findings to this House not later than May 22nd, together with such suggestions and recommendations as may to it seem fit and proper.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON offered the following motion, which was twice read and laid over under the rules.

RESOLUTION.

THAT SENATE BILL NO. 9 BE PLACED ON CALEDDAR.

That Senate Bill No. 9, entitled "An Act regulating annulment of marriage, divorces and alimony, defining the kinds thereof, the causes therefor and the defenses thereto, regulating the jurisdiction of the courts over the same, regulating the procedure of said courts in annulment and divorce proceedings, the kind, form, enforcement and effect of the decrees of said courts and providing for appeals therefrom, defining the effect of annulment or divorce upon property rights and upon the status of children for the care, custody and support of minor children, prohibiting marriage with a particeps criminis, declaring the effect of marriage on false rumor of death of either party and of foreign decrees and repealing, consolidating and extending existing laws in relation to these subjects," be placed upon the calendar, notwithstanding the negative recommendation of the committee.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. IRWIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentlemen will state his point.

Mr. IRWIN. Mr. Speaker, in looking over the Journal for last Tuesday, on the vote on House Bill No. 647, entitled:

An act to repeal an act entitled "An Act to prevent and punish prize-fights and boxing matches in the counties or Pike Schuylkill Luzerne Erie and Montgomery approved the sixteenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six" find that I am recorded as voting "aye." I voted "no," it I suppose in the confusion I was wrongly recorded. I esire to be recorded as voting "no" on this bill.

The SPEAKER. The change will be allowed, provided it oes not change the result of the vote on the bill.

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Mr. E. E. JONES. Mr. Speaker, in connection with the bill just passed, I desire at this time to call up House Bill No. 708 (Senate No. 154), on page 42 of to-day's calendar.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 708 (Senate No. 154), entitled:

A joint resolution proposing an amendment to article nine section four of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania authorizing the State to issue bonds to the amount of fifty millions of dollars for the improvement of the highways of the Commonwealth

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. AILMAN. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, inasmuch as this will finally be up to the people, perhaps it is a little premature to say anything on it now, yet it is our duty here to consider measures we pass, and I would like very much to have someone get up here and state clearly the necessity for this provision. Some weeks ago we had up for consideration a matter of considerable importance, and my friend in the back part of the House, in making his argument made a very strong plea against the bill on the ground that it was unnecessary, and that is exactly the way this proposed amendment to the Constitution strikes me. I would not proceed in this way in conducting my private business. Maybe I am not the most successful man in private business. You may judge that as you please. If I have within my reach the means for meeting a necessary expense or necessary improvement on my place, I am not going to borrow the money to do that work. I will use that which is at hand, and that which is within my reach That is exactly the position I think the State is in to-day, and will be in the future when this amendment becomes law or constitutional, and the money is borrowed as a consequence. At the best it will be necessary to set aside a very nice little amount to meet the interest on the bonds. Some people may say that the bonds will not be issued for a number of years. They will be issued, and perhaps in a less number of years than the people think. It will be necessary to set aside at least two millions of dollars for that purpose. Now, two million dollars rightly expended will build a pretty good piece of road. Why not put this two millions of dollars in roads instead of at interest, or at interest where you will have nothing to show for it. It will be necessary to set aside a very considerable sum as a sinking fund. You must redeem these bonds some time, and you must be prepared for it, and it will be necessary to have a sinking fund of at least a million dollars, and perhaps more. There are three millions of dollars entirely thrown away by the bond issue. There may be a good reason for this, but I hope before a vote is taken that the reason is given. If it is a sufficient reason I will vote for the measure, otherwise I will not. The very people who will have to pay this interest and this redemption fund will have to pay it and will be taxed to do it anyhow. We passed a bill a few weeks ago, which provided, as you know, for a tax of one mill on the corporations and personal property within the State, including capital stock of manufacturing concerns, and breweries also, I believe. If I figure rightly, if the Senate has the courage to pass that bill and make it a law, it will provide over six millions of dollars. That is just about as much as we can wisely expend on the roads in a year. But before I vote on this proposition, as I said, I hope that someone will explain why this bond issue is necessary.

Mr. E. E. JONES. Before this bill under consideration, providing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Pennsylvania for the issuing of these bonds, can become a law, the people all over the State of Pennsylvania, as a court of last resort, must pass upon the necessity of this amendment. The Legislature two years from now will also be called upon to pass upon it. Now, as to the necessity of issuing these fifty million dollars' worth of bonds. In a speech made by the Governor some time ago before a meeting of the Board of Trade, he suggested that in the matter of issuing these bonds, that five millions of dollars could be issued for one year, or whatever amount that could be wisely expended from year to year, so that it will not be necessary, if this amendment is passed here and voted on by the people, for the entire amount of fifty millions to be issued at once, but just so much as is needed from time to time. It is very evident, Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, that in the building of roads large sums of money are needed. Very often in the three years that I have been a member here, when the show down came, we have lacked the necessary money to carry out the provisions of very meritorious bills before this body—the building and maintaining of roads. Therefore it seems to me that it is only just and wise and businesslike to pass this amendment, let it come up before the session two years from now, and then have the people vote upon it. If they don't think it wise and fit to vote for it, then the bonds will not be issued. In my own opinion, from the appearance of conditions at the present time, the magnificent system of roads as provided for by the Sproul Bill will not be built, as I certainly think that there will not be enough revenue for carrying into effect this wise legislation. However, I hope that this bill will be favorably considered.

Mr. WILLIAMS. When the Sproul Bill was introduced it provided for 200 routes, totaling about five thousand miles of road. Since then it has been amended, so that it carries about 300 routes, totaling about seven thousand five hundred miles. In connection with this statement, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Susquehanna.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Susquehanna, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. E. E. JONES. I will.

Mr. WILLIAMS. I would like to ask if in your judgment fifty millions of dollars will build the seven thousand five hundred miles of road, as now provided for in the Sproul Highway Bill?

Mr. E. E. JONES. In reply to the gentleman I would say that in my opinion that it would not, but with the revenue from the State and the appropriations made from time to time, these roads could be built. There is not stated number of years for the completion of the roads.

The question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz.:

Section 14 Where a sewer is laid between buildings in a passageway alley or courtyard at a less distance than five feet from the buildings it must be constructed of extra heavy cast iron pipe for a distance corresponding to the length of the foundation of said building

Section 15 Floor or other drains will only be permitted when it can be shown to the satisfaction of the board or bureau of health that their use is absolutely necessary and arrangements made to maintain a permanent water-seal in the traps and be provided with check or back water valves

Section 16 All cast-iron pipes must be sound free from holes and of a uniform thickness known as "extra heavy" pipe and corresponding fittings will be required The pipe must be tested to fifty pounds water pressure and marked with the maker's name

Pipe shall weigh as follows namely
Two-inch pipe five and one-half pounds per lineal foot
Three-inch pipe nine and one-half pounds per lineal foot
Four-inch pipe thirteen pounds per lineal foot
Five-inch pipe seventeen pounds per lineal foot
Six-inch pipe twenty pounds per lineal foot
Seven-inch pipe twenty-seven pounds per lineal foot
Eight-inch pipe thirty-three and one-half pounds per lineal foot
Ten-inch pipe forty-five pounds per lineal foot
Twelve-inch pipe fifty-four pounds per lineal foot

Section 17 Sub-soil drains must discharge into a sump or receiving tank the contents of which must be lifted and discharged into the drainage system above the cellar floor by some approved method When directly sewer connected they must be cut off from the rest of the plumbing system by a brass flap-valve on the inlet to the catch-basin and the trap on the drain from the catch-basin must be water supplied as required for cellar drain

Section 18 All yards areas and courts must be drained Tenement houses and lodging houses must have the yards areas and courts drained into the sewer These drains when sewer connected must have connection not less than four inches in diameter They should be controlled by one trap—the leader trap if possible

Section 19 Old house drains and sewers may be used in connection with new buildings or new plumbing only when they are found on examination by the Board or Bureau of Health to conform in all respects to the requirements governing new sewers and drains All extensions to old house drains must be of extra heavy cast-iron pipe

Section 20 All buildings shall be kept provided with proper metallic leaders for conducting water from the roofs in such manner as shall protect the walls and foundations of said building from injury In no case shall the water from said leaders be allowed to flow upon the sidewalk but the same shall be conducted by a pipe or pipes to the sewer If there be no sewer in the street upon which such buildings front then the water from said leaders shall be conducted by proper pipe or pipes below the surface of the sidewalk to the street gutter

Section 21 Inside leaders must be constructed of cast-iron wrought-iron or steel with roof connections made gas and water-tight by means of a heavy lead or copper-drawn tubing wiped or soldered to a brass ferrule or nipple caulked or screwed into the pipe The tubing must extend at least seven (7) inches into iron leader pipe Outside leaders may be sheet metal but they must connect with the house drain by means of a cast-iron pipe extending vertically five (5) feet above the grade level

Section 22 All leaders must be trapped with cast-iron running traps so placed as to prevent freezing

Section 23 Rainwater leaders must not be used as soil-waste or vent-pipes nor shall such pipes be used as a leader

Section 24 No steam exhaust blow-off or drip-pipe shall connect with a sewer or house drain leader soil-pipe waste or vent-pipe Such pipes must discharge into a tank or condenser from which suitable outlet to the sewer shall be made Such condensers shall be water supplied to he condensation and protect the sewer and shall also be supplied with relief vent to carry off dry steam

Section 25 The smallest diameter of any soil-pipe permitted to be used shall be four-inch

The size of soil pipes must be not less than those set forth in the following tables

Maximum number of fixtures connected to

Size of Pipe.	Soil and Waste Combined. Branch.	Main.
4 In.	48 fixtures	96 fixtures
5 In.	96 fixtures	192 fixtures
6 In.	298 fixtures	336 fixtures

Size of Pipe.	Soil-Pipe Alone. Branch.	Main.
4 In.	8 waterclosets	16 waterclosets
5 In.	16 waterclosets	32 waterclosets
6 In.	34 waterclosets	68 waterclosets

If the building is six (6) and less than twelve (12) stories in height the diameter shall be not less than five (5) inches if more than twelve (12) stories it shall be six (6) inches in diameter A building six or more stories in height with fixtures located below the sixth floor soil-pipe four (4) inches in diameter will be allowed to extend through the roof provided the number of fixtures does not exceed the number given in the table

All soil pipes must extend at least two feet above the highest window and must not be reduced in size Traps will not be permitted on main vertical soil or waste lines Each house must have a separate line of soil and vent-pipes No soil or waste line shall be constructed on the outside of a building

Fixtures with
One and one-quarter traps count as one fixture
Two-inch traps count as two fixtures
Two and one-half traps count as three fixtures
Three-inch traps (water closets) count as four fixtures
Four-inch traps count as five fixtures

Section 26 All sewer soil and waste pipes must be direct as possible Changes in direction must be ma with "Y" or half "Y" branches or one-eighth bends O sets in soil or waste-pipes will not be permitted wh they can be avoided nor in any case unless suitable pr vision is made to prevent accumulation of rust or oth obstruction Offsets shall be made with forty-five degr bends or similar fittings The use of T-"Ys" (sanita Ts) will be permitted on upright lines only

Section 27 Joints in cast-iron pipes and soil and wast pipes must be so filled with oakum and lead and ha caulked as to make them gas-tight Connections of le and cast-iron pipes must be made with brass sleeve ferrule of the same size as the lead pipe inserted in t hub of the iron pipe and caulked with lead The lead pi must be attached to the ferrule by wiped joint Join between lead and wrought-iron pipes must be made wi brass nipple of same size as lead pipe The lead pipe mu be attached to the nipple by wiped joint All connectio of lead waste-pipe must be made by means of wiped join

Section 28 Every sink bathtub basin water closet slo hopper or fixtures having a waste-pipe must be furnish with a trap which shall be placed as close as practicab to the fixture that it serves and in no case shall they more than one foot from said fixture The waste-pipe fro the bathtub or other fixtures must not be connected wi
a watercloset trap

Size of Horizontal and Vertical Waste-pipe Traps and Branches.

Horizontal and Vertical.	Number of Small Fixture
1¼ inches	1
1½ inches	2
2 inches	3 to 8
2½ inches	9 to 20
3 inches	21 to 44

If building is ten (10) or more stories in height t vertical waste-pipe shall not be less than three (3) inch in diameter The use of wrought-iron pipe for waste-pi two inches or less in diameter is prohibited

The size of traps and waste branches for a given fixtu shall be as follows

Kind of Fixtures.	Size in Inche Trap.	Branc
Watercloset	3	4
Slop sink with trap combined	3	3
Slop Sink, ordinary	2	2
Pedestal urinal	3	3
Floor drain, or wash	4	4
Yard drain, or catch basin	4	4
Urinal trough	2	2
Laundry traps (2 or 5)	2	2
Combination sink and tray (for each fixture)	1½	2
Kitchen sinks (small) for dwellings	1½	1½
Kitchen sinks (large) hotels, restaurants, grease traps	...	2
Pantry sinks	1½	1½
Wash basin, one only	1¼	1¼
Bathtubs, 4x10 inches drum trap	...	1½
Shower baths	1½	1½
Shower baths (floor)	2	2
Sitz baths	1½	1½
Drinking fountains	1¼	1¼

Section 29 Overflow pipes from fixtures must in cases be connected on the inlet side of traps

Section 30 Sediment pipes from kitchen boilers mu not be connected on the outlet side of traps

Section 31 All traps must be well supported and true with respect to their water levels The size for tra must not be less than given in the following

Traps for water closets four inches in diameter

Traps for slop sinks one and one-half inches to thr inches in diameter

Traps for kitchen sinks one and one-half inches in diar eter.

Traps for wash trays two inches in diameter

Traps for (bowl) urinals one and one-half inches diameter

Traps for washstands one and one-fourth inches diameter All bathtubs shall be supplied with drum-tr not less than three inches in diameter with three-in trap-screws on floor line In case where an additional fi ture is required in a building and it is impossible to g re-vent pipes for the trap the Board or Bureau of Heal shall designate the kind of trap to be used This shall n be construed to allow traps without re-vents in ne buildings

Section 32 Safe waste-pipes must not connect direc with any part of the plumbing system Safe waste-pip must discharge over an open water supplied publicly plac ordinarily used sink placed not more than three and on half feet above the cellar floor The safe waste from refrigerator must be trapped at the bottom of the li only and must not discharge upon the ground floor b over an ordinary portable pan or some properly trapp water supplied sink as above In no case shall the refri erator waste-pipe discharge over a sink located in room used for living purposes

The branches on vertical lines must be made by " fittings and be carried to the safe with as much pitch possible Where there is an offset on a refrigerator wast pipe in cellar there must be clean-outs to control t horizontal part of the pipe

In tenement and lodging houses the refrigerator wast pipes must extend above the roof and not be larger th one and one-half inches nor the branches less than o and one-quarter inches Refrigerator waste-pipes exce in tenement houses and all safe waste-pipes must ha rass flap-valves at their lower ends Lead safes must e graded and neatly turned over beveled strips at their dges

Section 33 All vent-pipes must be either of lead brass ›ricated porcelain enameled iron or galvanized iron pipe

Section 34 All traps shall be protected from siphonage r air pressure by special vent-pipes of a size not less han the following tables ize of Pipe.	Maximum Developed Length in Feet. Mains.

¼ inch vent	20
½ inch vent	40
inch vent	65
½ inch vent	100
inch vent	10 or more stories

ize of Pipe.	Number of Traps Vented. Branch.	Main Vertical.
¼ inch vent	1
½ inch vent	2 or less
inch vent	10 or less	20 or less
½ inch vent	20 or less	40 or less
inch vent	60 or less	100 or less

The branch vent-pipes shall be not less than the fol- owing sizes One and one-fourth inches in diameter for ne and one-fourth inch traps One and one-half inches n diameter for one and one-half inch to two and one- alf inch traps Two inches in diameter for three-inch o four-inch traps One-half their diameter for traps five nches and over

Where two (2) or more water closets are placed side by ide on a horizontal branch the branch line shall have a elief extended as a loop vent A pipe two (2) inches in liameter will be sufficient as a loop vent for two (2) losets A pipe three (3) inches in diameter shall be used s a relief for three (3) or four (4) closets and where nore than four (4) closets are located on the same branch he relief shall not be less than four (4) inches in diam- ter All house drains and soil lines on which a water loset is located must have a four-inch main vent line vhere an additional closet is located in the cellar or base- nent and within ten feet of main soil or vent line no re- ief vent will be required for said closet but where it is nore than ten (10) feet a two-inch vent line will be re- uired Relief vent pipes for water closets must not be ess than two inches in diameter for a length of forty eet and not less than three inches in diameter for more han forty feet

No re-vent from traps under bell traps will be required Any building having a sewer connection with a public r private sewer used for bell trap connections or floor lrainage only a two-inch relief line must be extended t he roof of building from rear end of main drain House lrains constructed for roof drainage only will not re- uire a relief vent

A floor trap for a shower shall be vented unless located n cellar or ground floor the paving of which renders the rap inaccessible If the number of these fixtures on a ›ranch is two (2) or more the waste line shall be extende s a loop vent instead of back venting the separate traps nd when located in basement floor they shall be provided vith a removable strainer or cleanout Back-vent pipes rom traps above the floor must either be connected with rown of trap with ground-in brass coupling or if con- ected solidly to trap must have a ground-in brass coup- ing at wall

Section 35 Where rows of fixtures are placed in a line ittings of not less than forty-five (45) degrees to the iorizontal must be used on vent lines to prevent filling vith rust or condensations except on brick or tile walls vhere it is necessary to channel same for pipes ninety 90) degree fittings will be allowed Trapped vent-pipes re strictly prohibited No vent-pipe from house side of ny trap shall connect with ventilation pipe or with sewer oil or waste-pipe Vent-pipes from several traps may be onnected together or may be carried into the main vent ine above the highest fixture Where one vertical vent ine connects with another a "Y" fitting must be used Branch vent-pipes must be connected as near to crown of he trap as possible

Section 36 All offsets on vent lines must be made at an ngle of not less than forty-five degrees to the horizontal nd all lines must be connected at the bottom with a soil r waste-pipe or the drain in such manner as to prevent he accumulation of rust scale or condensation

Section 37 Rubber connections for back vents will not e permitted without double coupling and thimble inside

Section 38 No brick sheet metal or earthen ware flue r chimney flue shall be used as a sewer ventilator or to entilate any trap drain soil or waste-pipe

Section 39 Soldering nipples must be extra heavy brass r brass pipe iron pipe size

Section 40 Brass screw caps for cleanouts must be ex- ra heavy not less than one-eighth of an inch thick The crew-cap must have a solid square or hexagonal nut not ess than one inch high The body of cleanout ferrule must t least equal in weight and thickness the caulking fer- ule for the same size pipe

Section 41 Brass ferrules must be of best quality bell haped extra heavy cast brass not less than four inches ong and two and one-quarter inches three and one-hal nches thick and four and one-half inches in diameter an ot less than the following weights

Diameter two and one-fourth inches weight one pound

Diameter three and one-half inches weight one pound welve ounces

Diameter four and one-half inches weight two pounds ight ounces

Section 42 The closet and all other fixtures must be set open and free from all inclosing wood or other work Where water closets will not support a rim seat the seat must be supported on galvanized iron legs and a drip tray must be used which tray must be porcelain enameled on both sides and secured in place In tenement houses and lodging houses sinks must be entirely open set on iron legs or brackets without any inclosing wood or other work

Section 43 Pan plunger or hopper closets will not be permitted in any building No range closet either wet or dry nor an evaporating system of closets shall be constructed or allowed inside of any building

A separate building constructed especially for the purpose must be provided in which such range closets shall be set

Section 44 All earthenware traps must have meavy brass floor plates soldered to the lead bends and bolted to the trap flange and the joint made permanently secure and gas-tight

Section 45 Water closets must not be located in sleeping apartments nor in any room or compartment which has not direct communication with external air either by window or air-shaft of at least four square feet

Section 46 No water closets except those placed in yards and flushometer volumeters or similar devices shall be supplied directly from the supply pipes

Section 47 All water closets must have flushing rim bowls Water closets to be supplied from flushing tanks

Section 48 Water closets within buildings shall be supplied with water from special tanks or cisterns which shall hold not less than six gallons when filled to the level of the overflow pipe for each closet supplied excepting automatic or siphon tanks which shall hold not less than five gallons for each closet supplied A group of closets may be flushed from one tank but water closets on different floors must not be flushed from the same tank except flushometers volumeters or similar devices The water in said tanks must not be used for any other purpose

Section 49 In no case will the water closet system of tenement or lodging houses be permitted in cellars basements or under sidewalks

Section 50 In all sewer connected occupied buildings there must be at least one water closet and there must be additional closets so as there will never be more than fifteen persons per closet In lodging houses where there are more than fifteen persons on any floor there must be an additional water closet on that floor for every fifteen additional persons or fraction thereof

Section 51 In tenement houses lodging houses factories work shops and all public buildings the entire water closet apartments and side walls to a height of sixteen inches from the floor except at the door must be made water-proof with asphalt cement tile or other water-proof material as approved by the Board or Bureau of Health In tenement houses and lodging houses the water closet and urinal apartments must have a window or windows opening into the outer air of sufficient size all of which shall be shown on plans and shall be subject to the approval of the Board or Bureau of Health Except that tenement or lodging houses three stories or less in height may have such window opening on a ventilating shaft not less than ten feet square in area In all buildings the outer partition of such apartments must extend to the ceiling or be independently ceiled over and these partitions must be air-tight The outside partitions must include a window opening to outer air on the lot whereon the building is situated or some other approved means of ventilation must be provided When necessary to properly light such apartments the upper part of the partitions must be of glass The interior partitions of such apartments must be dwarft partitions

Section 52 All urinals must be constructed of materials impervious to moisture and that will not corrode under the action of urine The floor and walls of urinal apartments must be lined with similar non-absorbent and non-corrosive material

Section 53 The platforms or treads of urinal stalls must not be connected independently to the plumbing system nor can they be connected to any safe waste-pipe

Section 54 Iron trough water closets and trough urinals must be porcelain enameled or galvanized cast-iron

Section 55 All water closets and other fixtures must be provided with a sufficient supply of water for flushing to keep in a proper and cleanly condition

Section 56 Water closet flush pipes must not be less than one and one-quarter inches and urinal flush pipes one-half inch in diameter

Section 57 The copper lining of water closet and urinal cisterns must not be lighter than twelve ounce copper and must be stamped on lining with maker's name Where lead is used for lining it must not weigh less than four pounds to the square foot All other materials are prohibited

Section 58 Wooden wash trays sinks or bath tubs are prohibited inside of buildings Such fixtures must be constructed of non-absorbent material Cement or artificial tubs will not be permitted unless approved by the Board or Bureau of Health

Section 59 Water closets when located in yard must be arranged as to be conveniently and adequately flushed and the water supply pipes and traps protected from freezing by being placed in a hopper pit at least four feet below the surface of the ground the walls of which pit shall be constructed of hard burned brick or stone laid in cement or mortar or of concrete and traps used inside pit must be extra heavy cast-iron and the trap to have a hand hole for cleanout purposes The closet drain to be vented with a four-inch pipe and carried up above the roof of closet away from any opening or window The water shall be supplied through an automatic seat action valve The waste water from valve shall be conveyed to the sever through a half-inch lead pipe properly connected The enclosures of yard water closets shall be ventilated by slatted openings and there shall be a trap-door in floor of sufficient size to permit of convenient access to the hopper pit

Section 60 No privy vault or cesspool for sewerage shall hereafter be constructed in any part of the city where a sewer is at all accessible which shall be determined by the Department Board or Bureau of Health nor shall it be lawful to continue a privy vault or cesspool on any lot piece or parcel of ground abutting on or contiguous to any public sewer within the city limits The Department or Board or Bureau of Health shall have the power to issue notice giving at least three months' time to discontinue the use of any cesspool and have it cleaned and filled up No connection from any cesspool or privy vault shall be made with any sewer nor shall any water closet or house drain empty into a cesspool or privy vault

Section 61 In rural districts or districts where no sewer exists privy vaults shall not be located within two feet of party or street line nor within twenty feet of any building Before any privy vault shall be constructed application for permission shall be made to the Department or Board or Bureau of Health and such privy vault shall have nine-inch walls constructed of hard burned brick or stone laid in cement mortar or of concrete with bottom and sides cemented so as to be water-tight size to be not less than four feet in diameter and six feet deep

Section 62 All material used in the work of plumbing and drainage must be of good quality and free from defects The work must be executed in a thorough and workmanlike manner

Section 63 No person firm or corporation carrying on the business of plumbing and house drainage shall allow his or their name to be used by any person directly or indirectly either to obtain a permit or permits or to do any work under his or their license

Section 64 The term "private sewer" is applied to main sewers that are not constructed by and under the supervision of the department of public works

The term "house sewer" is applied to that part of the main drain or sewer extending from a point five feet outside of the outer wall of a building vault or area to its connection with public sewer private sewer or cesspool

The term "house drain" is applied to that part of the main horizontal drain and its branches inside the walls of the building vault or area and extending to and connecting with the house sewer

The term "soil-pipe" is applied to any vertical line of pipe extending through the roof receiving the discharge of one or more water closets with or without other fixtures

The term "waste-pipe" is applied to any pipe extending through roof receiving the discharge from any fixtures except water closets

The term "vent-pipe" is applied to any special pipe provided to ventilate the system of piping and to prevent trap siphonage and back pressure

Section 65 Whenever it shall come to the knowledge of the department or board or bureau of health or complaint in writing shall be made by any citizen that the plumbing or drainage in any building has become a nuisance or is contrary to the provisions and requirements of this Act or the ordinances of the city or is of faulty construction and liable to breed disease or endanger the health of the occupants or upon the request of any owner or occupant of any building fitted with plumbing or drainage prior to the passage of this Act then the Department or Board or Bureau of Health shall direct the proper officer to examine the plumbing or drainage in any such building and the said officer shall make a drawing of the plan of said plumbing drainage and sewer and ventilating shaft connections He shall report his findings in writing to the Department or Board or Bureau of Health and suggest such changes as are necessary to make the same conform to the rules governing such matters

The Department or Board or Bureau of Health shall thereupon notify the owner or agent of any such building of the changes which are necessary to be made in said plumbing or drainage Said changes shall be made within the time fixed by the Department or Board or Bureau of Health and upon refusal or neglect to obey such orders the Department or Board or Bureau of Health shall institute legal proceedings to have such changes made and said nuisance abated by action before a justice of the peace or court of record in which said action the owner or agent of said building may show in defence that the plumbing or drainage was not a nuisance or was not of faulty construction or out of repair and in case of a building constructed subsequent to the passage of this Act said plumbing or drainage was not contrary to the provisions and requirements of this Act or the ordinances of the city

Section 66 When drain soil waste vent and other pipes in the building connected or to be connected with the sewer have been placed in position a preliminary water or air test of the same shall be applied in presence of an officer of the Board or Bureau of Health

Section 67 When the work has been completed a final notice shall be filed with the Board or Bureau of Health when a final air or peppermint test shall be made in presence of said officer when if found satisfactory a certificate of approval of the work will be issued but no such plumbing or drainage work or system shall be used until said test has been made and certificate issued

Section 68 When work is ready for inspection the plumbing contractor shall make such arrangements as will enable the proper officer to reach all parts of the building easily and readily and also have present the proper apparatus and appliances for making said tests and furnish such assistance as may be necessary to a proper application of the same

Section 69 In case of any dispute or difference or oponion existing between the Department or Board or Bureau of Health and any person firm or corporation as aforesaid regarding the construction of plumbing house drainage or cesspools the same shall be submitted by either party to the director of the Department of Public Health and Charities o the presiding officer of the Department or Board or Bureau o Health who shall pass upon the same and whose finding therein after hearing shall be final and conclusive upon al parties

Section 70 Any person or persons who shall fail to comply with any of the provisions of this Act regarding the procuring of a license or certificate to engage in or work at the business of plumbing or house drainage shall be liable to a fine of not less than ten dollars nor exceeding fifty dollars for each and every day he or they shall engage in or work at said business without first having obtained said certificate or license and any person or persons who shall violate any of the rules regulations or requirements set forth in this Act regarding the construction reconstruction or testing of plumbing house drainage or cesspools shall be liable for every offence to a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars which fines shall be recoverable before any alderman or police magistrate in said cities by summary proceedings and shall be used for in the name of such cities and when collected shall be paid into the treasury thereof

All fines and penalties imposed by this Act shall be recoverable by summary proceedings before any police magistrate or justice of the peace in said cities and all suits or actions at law instituted for the recovery thereof shall be in the name and for the use of the city within or against which offence is committed and upon recovery thereof all such fines and penalties shall be paid to the city treasurer thereof In default of the payment of any fine or penalty imposed by any police magistrate or justice of the peace under the provisions of this Act the person or persons so offending may be committed to the jail workhouse or other penal institution of the county in which said city is situated for a period not exceeding thirty days

Section 71 The department or board or bureau of health shall have power to make such rules and regulations and changes in the foregoing specifications relative to the construction of the plumbing or house drainage as said department board or bureau may from time to time determine to be necessary or advisable for the better protection of the safety or health of the occupants of any house or the community

Section 72 All acts or parts inconsistent with the provisions of this act or supplied thereby are hereby repealed

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Mr. WM. WARD, Jr. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 693, file folio 3615, on page 39 of to-day's calendar, bills on third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 693, entitled:

An act regulating the reading of the Holy Bible in the public schools of this Commonwealth

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. STEIN. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House efore the vote is taken on this bill I would most respect-lly request that every gentleman in the House give this ll his careful consideration, and if it appears from that reful consideration that the bill should be voted down as eing entirely unfair I hope that the bill will be defeated. he bill calls for the compulsory reading of at least ten erses of the Bible in the public schools every morning, id upon failure to comply with this mandate dismissal ould follow. As you no doubt know, there is a very seri-is difference among the citizens of this Commonwealth as which is the proper version of the Holy Bible and still rther a very serious difference of opinion of the advis-bility of any such legislation. In addition I would most re-ectfully direct your attention to the fact that the School ode, which is now in the course of passage through the ouse, has practically regulated every detail necessary for e proper management of the public schools. I can see no ssible reason why any gentleman would insist on tacking this amendment nor can I see that it is the desire of any rge number of God-fearing or religious people that this ll be passed.

On the contrary, but I do say, that it is very offensive to any good citizens of this Commonwealth, many thousands the good citizens of this Commonwealth, who have ex-ressed themselves very openly and fully against the provi-ons of this bill. I say it in a spirit of Americanism and irness that it is unfair to force upon all these people of e Commonwealth the provsions of this bill, which can do bsolutely no good at all, but will work injury and harm roughout this Commonwealth—differences that have been eeping for hundreds of years and years. Why arouse em? And on this proposition I ask every gentleman of the ouse to lend his aid in the defeat of this bill.

Mr. HENRY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to answer the entleman who has just spoken. It has been my very good rtune to be engaged in the educational work of the public hools almost all of my lifetime, and it has been invariably e custom, if not the law, that the Holy Bible has been ad every morning in the public schools, and I should like know why that should not be made compulsory just the ame as the teaching of any branch in the public schools? t does not say that you must read any portion of the Bible, ut it does say that you must read ten verses, and these ten erses may be read from the Old Testament or the New estament, and, consequently there would be no factional eelings aroused because of the provisions of this bill, and or that reason I desire to ask the men of this House who ave a vote to offer to vote in favor of it, because there is no ook which will lead the young minds along the roads they hould be led than the Bible, and no book in all Christendom s instructive as this book. If they object to the reading of ne portion they could read another portion, and if they so esire they can read both portions of it, and no feeling ould be raised anywhere, and any gentleman who believes truth and honesty will not oppose the reading of the Holy ible in the public schools.

Mr. WM. WARD, Jr. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of e House, I feel that the distinguished gentleman from llegheny, Mr. Stein, looks at this bill rather too severely. his bill is not a severe measure, and simply provides at by law custom now established shall be carried out. does not make it mandatory that the teacher shall read e ten verses, but that she directs that they shall be read. his bill provides for no sectional portion to be read, any ortion of the Bible can be read as designated by the acher, and may be read by the teacher or by one of the upils of the school. It will probably do good, and cer-ainly can do no harm, and I trust that the members of e House will support this measure and pass the bill.

Mr. DEARDEN. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the ouse, I want to add a word of support to the remarks st made by the gentleman from Delaware for this rea-on, if for no other. The American people in the mass re Bible-reading people, and the Bible more than any ther instrument constitutes in the largest sense the chart American liberties, and if the American people stand or anything as a nation they stand for all that is incul-ated in the Holy Bible. In my opinion it will be a sorry ay for this republic when it ceases to honestly and vingly revere the injunctions and inspirations and prom-es of the Holy Bible. It was related of the late Queen Victoria that upon one occasion when one of the Indian Princes belonging to a domain of the British Empire was visiting in London, inspired as he was by the grandeur of it all, but with a full knowledge of what England's powers stood for when he asked her, "To what do you contribute all this?" and she turned and handed him the Holy Bible and said "It is all there." I believe it, and I believe in the same large sense and same true sense that it is at the bottom of the glory and of all the promises we have in the perpetuation of this land of ours. Now, gentlemen, stand for the Holy Bible in the public schools. All this requires is that ten verses shall be read, absolutely without comment and without embarrassment to anybody's faith. Where is the Christian in this wide, wide world, I don't care to what extremity he might go, who can find a word of fault in all honesty and sincerity with the proposition that this Christian nation shall be upheld and that the Bible become a part of the curriculum of the public schools of this Commonwealth. Now, gentlemen, let the Bible stand just where it is. That is the one thing I ask.

Mr. JOHNSTON. Mr. Speaker, my high regard for the integrity and honesty of the gentlemen of this House leads me to believe that the bill will be supported. I want to say that I am most heartily in favor of this bill. My profound respect for the judgment of the members of this House leads me to believe that they will give it their undivided support for this reason, if for no other, and that is the effect that it may have upon our children. "It is the lamp unto our feet and the light unto our pathway." I am sure that we cannot hope to be the Keystone of this great nation if we drive it away from our schools and discourage our children from an acquaintance with the very essence of that which gives us the foundations of our Government. I hope the bill passes unanimously and that everybody votes upon it.

Mr. SPEER. Mr. Speaker, that anything should have been said provoking a discussion on the matter before us, it seems to me that the book itself is too sacred to come under discussion here. I do not believe that we ought to attempt to measure our wisdom against the wisdom of the Divine Author of that book. We all know that it is the very heart of our civil government. We know that it has been the inspiration of our Christian civilization everywhere. We know that it is the foundation stone of human character, and I cannot but wish that this book might be in the curriculum of every institution of learning in this land, from our common schools to our universities, and I cannot possibly think for a moment that we could close the doors in Christian America against this book in the public schools where our children are to read the wisdom and guidance of a Higher Power. The teacher can read the Bible without note or comment upon any of the verses, and that can be objected to by none of the citizens of this country, and I sincerely hope that every member here will feel it is their right, their privilege and their duty to give their voice to the support of this bill to keep the Bible in our public schools.

Mr. HOWARD. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I really don't believe that we should force religion on to any people, but allow them to take their own way. If the Bible is merely a moral book, then it is all right; put it into the public schools. If the Bible is a religious book, then it is a question whether we have a right to force it on the people. To my mind it is unconstitutional, and therefore I think the question is entirely unconstitutional and should not be on the calendar at all. I am opposed to forcing any church teaching on the people at all by the laws of the State.

Mr. SPEER. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman?

Mr. SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cameron, Mr. Howard, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HOWARD. Yes, sir.

Mr. SPEER. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman consider the Bible a sectarian book?

Mr. HOWARD. I don't know.

Mr. FERGUSON. Mr. Speaker, the most valuable asset of this Commonwealth is its children; they are the hope of the State and the nation. We want them to have strong bodies; we want their minds cultured, but we also want their character developed, and developed morally, and there is nothing that will do this like the word of God. I know nothing that makes for character like the Holy Bible. We must have a standard of morals. We have a standard in everything, and must have it. We have our gold dollar; we have our standards of weights and measures, and we measure and weigh things by that standard. By what standard shall we measure manhood? If we turn away from the word of God, what have we? Here is a plain proposition—it is the question of the reading of the Holy Bible in our public schools. That is broad enough for any man. We can turn to the Old Testament and read its truths and we can read the law that is the foundation of all law. We can turn to the New Testament and we can read ''The Sermon on the Mount'' and other passages from one portion or the other portion of the book. I think this House recognizes that there is nothing that so distinguishes between good and evil and enters into personal life and public life like the teaching of this Holy Word, and it would be a dark day in Pennsylvania if this House would record its vote against the reading of the Word of God, the Holy Word, to the children of this great Commonwealth.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. MARVIN. Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Pike, Mr. Marvin.

Mr. MARVIN. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, There are many children brought into this world the fathers of whom are not the husbands of those who bear such children, and in the same category may we place this bill now before us, for although our learned friend from Allegheny fathers it we are well aware that it is not in toto a progeny of his.

This measure, gentlemen, I take it, is a little from the Wisconsin, the Massachusetts and the Ohio public service act, but the major part is reproduced from New York.

Why this bill, which has held legislation in abeyance and we legislators here a full month after we should have adjourned is thrust upon us I do not know. Surely the people in general have made no petition for such a law; neither are our great corporate interests demanding it. And I feel quite certain, from our files, we have considered enough legislation to have covered almost every subject under the sun.

If it is a pet project and the production of the learned Attorney General, then in the drafting why did he not call into conference some of the capable attorneys of these many public-service corporations, who have spent years in prosecuting and defending violations of existing laws? Surely they, with their experience, might have offered some valuable suggestions.

It stirkes me that a body of laymen, knowing nothing of law and court procedure, would be an illy-chosen body to draft a sweeping bill pertaining to the Attorney General's duties and to lay down rules of law for the interpretation of the statutes for the government of this great Commonwealth, and I think every lawyer here will agree with me in the assertion that they could promulgate better rules of court than a body of farmers, and every country member will also agree when I say that a body of farmers could run the farm to a better success than a body of lawyers.

Therefore, I contend that had the Attorney General's department secured the aid of attorneys representing the various service corporations he is seeking to control in drafting this measure a better and more equitable instrument would have resulted.

This bill comes to us, gentlemen, after a long and careful drafting and deliberation in and out of the Attorney General's department and issued forth as the ultimatum of that department to the thousands of corporate interests of our Commonwealth as their coming rules of action and as being the original production of that profound body.

If such is the fact, and we are all led to so believe, then, gentlemen, I must confess a great injustice is perpetrated upon us, for I do assure you that if the New York State Public Service Commission act were copyrighted and I was retained as its counsel I could most gloriously wallop someone for the infringement of the Copyright law.

I will go further and say to you, gentlemen, that any lawyer or county newspaper man in this House, given a copy of the New York State act, a pot of paste and a pair of shears could in a fair day's work produce the body of this identical measure now presented to us, without the bill now sought to be passed being before him.

I hold in my hand a copy of the New York State Public Service act, certified by the Secretary of that State, and under such certification is admissible in evidence in any court of record of that State. Now, if you gentlemen will turn to folio 5927, page 10, of the bill now under discussion, subdivision on line 134, I will read and we will compare section 27, page 18, of the New York act, just for an illustration.

The same familiarity prevails not only in this, but in section after section, and we all supposed we were getting the original meat of the grey matter from this attorney general's department, of a sufficient puirty to at least conform to our Pure Food laws, but see what they have foisted upon us!

Now, gentlemen, shall we follow the lead of New York State? It was the custom of my preceptors to uphold to me the life of a man, for an example, who was moral, thrifty and who lived within his income, and I yet believe such was good advice.

Now, what of New York State? Its political morals are not an example for a state like ours, for you all remember the recent Alds and Conger bribery scandal and the hold-up in the election of a United States Senator. Nothing like that can be laid at our doors, for our Legislature is the type of political purity and our election of United States Senators is done in rapid-fire time.

New York State may be thrifty, but it does not live within its income, and yet this great Empire State is held up to us as a model to follow—she with a debt of 7 1-2 millions, and with the debts of her cities and counties included making a total debt of 432 millions. She cannot even borrow enough money to rebuild her State house after it has burned down.

Shall this great Keystone State follow the lead of such a state, or shall we pursue our own course and lead under the directorship of the great Republican party, which has so successfully steered our course these many years?

We shall, I know, continue to blaze our own trail, and they may camp where our camp fires have burned.

The New York act claims jurisdiction over but common carriers, gas and electric, public service corporations. Our act is unlimited.

Recurring now to the act, which I shall go through hurriedly:

Article 1, on page 2, is so different from the rest of this profound original production of the attorney general that it is apparent from first glance that it was produced by a master legal mind, one trained in the technical phraseology of the law, and I cheerfully accredit this section to our friend from Allegheny.

"The proposed commission will supervise, regulate, control and operate and have complete jurisdiction over all transportation companies, either passenger or freight, telegrph, telephone and other companies doing an interstate, an intrastate or a local business, and so finely have the lines been drawn that every corporation, firm or person engaged in any kind of business, in which two or more persons are interested, will be absolutely under the supervision, regulation, control and operation of the commission, and every corporation and its facilities, which would even include its employes, can readily be determined a public service corporation and under the authority of this act.

On page 2, lines 19 and 20, so finely are things drawn that if two farmers are growing a field of potatoes for market they can be construed to come under "being engaged for profit" in a business "in which the people are interested," and this commission in its wisdom may determine just how many times that field of potatoes shall be cultivated and the price the yield shall be sold for!

Page 5, Article 2, will take out of the hands of its corporators, its stockholders, directors and officers the control and management and place them entirely under the dictatorial abeyance of five commissioners, and leave nothing to the judgment of their experience and knowledge, either technical or experimental, gathered from years of actual experience, and the business advantages of its stockholders, directors and officers count for naught.

It brushes lightly aside the acquired knowledge of thousands of employes, who have spent a lifetime in the mills, the shops and the offices in close study and application. Then after this commission has completely demolished a plant or corporation by an unwise order and absolutely bankrupted it, and if on appeal the Dauphin County Court finds the ruling of the commission erroneous, what redress have you and I as stockholders to reimburse us for our loss, taken by an arbitrary and unwise decision?

We cannot sue and recover, nor will the State reimburse us for the wrong committed by its servants, the commission. We can only damn the commission and bear it. Even the Commonwealth will, and has this session given permission for a man to sue and recover, if he can, for falling down the polished rotunda steps, yet if a little thing like putting the U. S. Steel Corporation or the Penna. R. R. Co. out of business comes up it is ignored in toto.

There are to-day millions and millions invested by stockholders, such as you and I, in these thousands of public service corporations, and by our votes of stock we elect men to direct their affairs by reason of their peculiar aptitude, skill, judgment and business ability. We entrust them with that pittance, accumulated by self-denial, to care for us in our declining years. These men are specialists in their vocation and to whom thousands of employes are daily accountable, yet in none of which departments would their directors or managers presume to intrude and interfere, outside of an advisory capacity, but leaving the basis to those who by daily contact produce results; now is sought by one sweep of the gubernatorial pen to wipe this all out and throw it under the control of five commissioners.

Page 6, line 18 down, says: "Every public service corporation shall permit any other public service corporation to use its conduits, subways, stations, facilities, etc., etc." Don't the Attorney General know of the recent decision in 203 Penna. of the Philadelphia, Newtown and Swarthmore Railways petition, in which the Court held "That a statute cannot be maintained which confers upon one corporation for profit the right to appropriate the property of another, to exactly the same public uses, merely for the convenience and profit of the other corporation, and any act which gave to a street railway company, subject to the payment of damages, the right to use 2,500 feet of the tracks of another street railway company is unconstitutional!" Don't he know that? And don't he know that within the past month our Supreme Court has decided "That a recent act, empowering cities to regulate street car fares, is not a police regulation that can be enforced by a municipality and is wholly unconstitutional, and yet here are two decisions in direct conflict with the articles above enumerated.

Pages 13 and 14, subdiv. (a), "gives public service corporations the right to fix rates so that its property wil earn a reasonable return and not less than the legal rate o interest. "Oh, wonderful thought! This is the optimisti point that every human being and every artificial perso in this great universe is and has been heading for sinc time immemorial—to run his business so that it will yiel a profit of not less than 6 per cent. Under this section n railroad, gas or electric light company will ever go int the hands of the receiver, for it will have absolute authority to first provide for its expenditures or fixed charges Second, a 6 per cent. profit, and no matter what its charte or existing laws or the reasonableness or unreasonablenes of its rates. No rate or law can be unreasonable that doe not cover legitimate fixed charges and a 6 per cent. return Truly this is a happy thought.

Page 14, subdiv. (c). "Public service corporations ar to have reasonable rules and regulations subject to thi law." And yet, gentlemen, there will be no law, for th commission may change its own rulings at any time. N rule of law or of business will be permanent, and to-da the great business interests are clamoring for our Legislatures to make rules governing them more permanent Yet under this section, instead of laws every two years they will be daily changing and shifting.

Page 15, Section 2. "Upon the approval of the commission a public service corporation may incorporate, organize and be created." In case one or two competing companies are desirous of merging a third, must they publish their intentions for the informaation of the public and thei competitor? And would such a delay and publicity necessary for approval be conducive to business methods? An how under the sun would all this interest the ordinar citizen?

On page 15, Section 3, subdiv. (c), as well as Section 4 subdiv. c and d, on pages 17 and 18, and Article V, sections 16 and 17, on pages 41 and 42, are wholly unconstitutional! And I challenge the Attorney General over his official signature to give his official opinion in their favo to the legal profession of this State or these subdivisions It is here sought to give the commission the right an power to say whether the property, franchises and labor o a corporation, on a sufficiently moving consideration for the issuing of stock and bonds between contracting parties and to give the commission, if that be so, the right, i they so elect, to add to, cut down or reject in its entirety such privilege. Article 16, section 3, of our constitution provides "* * * the exercise of the police power o the State shall never be abridged or so construed as to permit corporations to conduct their business in such manner as to infringe the equal rights of individuals on the general well-being of the State."

But this section is and always has been construed by the courts in the interest of the public, and never in individual cases so as to interfere with what is commonly known as the inherent rights of persons or corporations to purchase labor, property and franchises upon such terms as the contracting parties may determine, whether they be private and corporation or corporation and corporation, unless that right concerns the public.

Article 16, Section 7, of our constitution provides further, "That no corporation shall issue stocks and bonds, except for money, labor done or money or property actually received, and all fictitious values of stocks or indebtedness shall be void * * *."

And does not the Attorney General know that under this section this right of contract has always been recognized between parties, and many laws have been passed on that theory.

After the 1874 constitution we find an "Act authorizing corporations to issue stock in payment of property or franchises." Following is the act of 1885 authorizing them to issue stock in payment for property and labor. Then the next Legislature, in 1887, amended the act of 1878 and authorized reorganized corporations to issue stock and bonds in payment of property and franchises, and yet again in 1889 an act authorizing the merger and consolidation and giving them the right to issue stock and bonds to an amount representing the value of the property and franchises of the corporation sought to be merged or consolidated.

No court would sustain these subdivisions, for contracti parties have always exercised the sole right to deterne the value of either their property, franchises or labor, that sought to be acquired or disposed of, and that this any other Legislature cannot delegate such a power to s or any other commission, and that it is entirely beyond any construction or interpretation that can be given se sections of the constitution.

If there is a commission appointed, it should not, and it ver could under the construction placed upon these secns of the constitution, go beyond saying "That the ual amount is that such corporation has invested," or ssibly to ascertain the actual value of its franchises and perty, and that is as far as it could possibly go, for in ing rates this is the only proper basis to work from, and se subdivisions are purely illegal and unconstitutional.

Page 17, subdiv. (b), line 10, would absolutely curtail pital from investing and utterly prevent one corporation m holding stock either as an investment or as part ner and operator in another, and under its provisions no o corporations could ever consolidate or merge either th or without the consent of the commission.

Page 17, subdiv. (c), line 26 on, requires "Every corration to capitalize its franchises or consolidation merger at its actual value, which shall be its iginal cost." Would you Pittsburgh members say the lue of the franchises of the Philadelphia company, , as you better know it the Pittsburgh Railways mpany, an omnibus charter, that its value to-day not worth in the open market many thousands in excess its original cost, or you Philadelphia members that the G. I. franchises, if sold at public auction at your City all, would not bring in cold cash more than its corrators paid for it?

The value of a thing is not governed by the cost—its e demand for that particular commodity which sets the andard of values.

Page 18, subdiv. (d), line 37 down. "It shall be unwful in reorganization to issue stocks in excess of their tual value." Must one issue stocks on reorganization gardless of their book value, taking into consideration its id-up capital, surplus and undivided profits? And is not is and the increased demand for this particular commodity to enter into the true value thereof? If not, then l rules of economics are thrown to the winds!

Page 27, Section 12, says none of these commissioners hall hold any stocks, bonds, office or relation to any public ervice corporation.

In my opinion this theory is wrong and but a subterfuge, or where are you going to find five men in this Commonealth of the broad calibre and business integrity to unertake this gigantic, impossible task of supervising our housands of public-service corporations who have not made heir mark in the commercial fields and have not laid up, fter careful deliberation and reflection, stocks and bonds of ur corporations? If he is not, then surely I do not and I m sure you would not want him to supervise any corporaion you were an investor in; and shall he sell his 4, 5 or per cent. bonds or a better dividend-paying stock in Pennylvania corporations and reinvest in United States twos? Or will he transfer to his wife, his family or to a trustee hese identical stocks and bonds and gather his dividends nd coupons in a surreptitious manner? Human nature is eak along this line, so why not let a man be a bona fide older and play the game fair and above board.

Page 34, Section 6. One telephone may connect with the ystem of another. This being so, progressiveness and effiiency of construction would stop; for would the Bell or the American continue their improvements and efficiency for the ccommodation of another system of half a mile of wire and 4 phones?

Pages 34 and 35, Section 7. This Commonwealth in isuing charters gave to each corporation the absolute right to un its own business as its stockholders, directors and offiers thought most advantageous and guaranteed them that ight so long as they did not transgress the laws in force. Now a corporation will not be a servant of the people, but vill be the puppet of every whim of its five commissioners.

Page 38, Section 13. The commission "may require all ommon carriers to operate aditional trains, terminal failities of street car lines, &c., &c."

Assuming now that such an order were made, and under xisting laws the borough or city council should refuse such change, which mandate would the public-service corporation follow? And would any five men know of the conditions existing in our 67 counties?

Page 39 and 40, Section 14. The approval of any public-service corporation shall only be granted when the commission shall be satisfied that the granting is necessary.

The owner has nothing to say what he shall do with his own or whether he thinks such improvement necessary or not. The commission is the absolute dictator. Would a commission of five men have been far-seeing enough to have allowed and granted the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to have built its great depot in New York city or its magnificent Enola yards? Or would it have thought it was unnecessary?

Page 41 and 42, Section 16. "The commission shall issue a 'certificate of valuation' upon its stock, etc.," and yet this act says its franchises shall not be of a greater value than when issued; and regardless of its book value the par value only shall prevail. And what rates will its stock and bonds bear to its outstanding indebtedness and capital stock?

Page 43, Section 17. Provides that bonds notes and bills payable are to be charged to capital account and payment thereof not to be made from income. If the earnings are not to be applied on the indebtedness there is only one other way to liquidate, and that is to transfer your income to profit and loss and then pay, for a bonded indebtedness cannot be held off indefinitely by even refunding issues. The end must come and the series mature, and if no provision is made for payment from the earnings or by a refund issue I would be willing to know how you can liquidate

Pages 43 and 44, Section 19. The commission as a commision or individually may subpoena witnesses, etc., to appear in any part of the State, and yet on trial every defendant shall appear in Dauphin County Court. This is like the old King's Court, that made the bailiwicks wait on him.

Article 6, Page 45. No person shall be excused from testifying on the ground that it may tend to incriminate him.

This will upset one of oldest established rules of law, if not an inherent right of the people, and lead to endless confusion.

Pages 47 and 48, Section 4, will give the commission an entire new power—that of committing a corporation to jail for contempt of court.

Page 52, Section 15. "No application for rehearing will operate as a stay or supersedeas or postpone the enforcement of an order—" even if a bond be given; an unheard of and unwarranted condition and a penalty wholly arbitrary and without justice or reason.

Page 52, Section 17. "The Dauphin Conuty Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction on appeal." If a defendant live in Erie, Allegheny, Philadelphia or Pikecounty he may attend only in Dauphin county. It may be that the Dauphin County Court and the Attorney General do not have faith in any other court for a favorable determination of its original rulings.

Page 57, Section 28. "All appeals taken shall have precedence at Dauphin County Court over all other civil actions except election cases and suits for wages." We are now passing a bill giving quo warranto proceedings absolute priority. Will you kill that? and will you make the Dauphin County Court a court of State inquisition for Pennsylvania established and operated wholly in the interests of the State and not for the people?

Page 57, Section 31 "Abolishes injunctions except on notice and cause shown to the Commonwealth upon a hearing and gives Dauphin County Court absolute jurisdiction in injunctions." Here, again, you are effacing at one sweep of the pen one of the fundamental principles of American law and seeking to put upon the statute books a law as strict as the right to suppress the operation of habeas corpus in war time, and which will absolutely deprive the poor man of enjoining the rich corporation until he can secure his legal remedies.

Page 58, Section 33 "Provides that whenever the Commission is of the opinion that a P. S. Corp. is about to violate or is about to omit to do "a thing—"

Why not arrest a man who is about to be infected with witchcraft? We used to do it.

By whatever name, Court or Commission, the Commission is really a court. It has power to hear, determine, adjudge and condemn and it is wrong to permit a Court or Commission to initiate proceedings upon which it is to pass judgment and it would not initiate these proceedings unless it had already condemned, which is a prejudgment of the controversy before hearing.

Giving Dauphin County Court exclusive jurisdiction is wrong, it requires persons and witnesses to go too far to right a wrong and many poor persons would be prohibited from bringing righteous complaints.

Every court of record in the State ought to have the jurisdiction to set aside unlawful orders of the Commission and a defendant the right to appeal to his local courts where he resides.

It has been our policy to develop public utilities, not to hamper them. This has led to our commercial greatness.

This Commission would have to understand not alone the situation in Pennsylvania but throughout the world so far as railroads are concerned. The railroads of Pennsylvania are not only engaged in local business but in interstate and foreign business. They are now competing with the railroads of Canada for traffic which originates along the Great Lakes and any interfernce by a Commission which would not thoroughly understand the situation at lake ports and in the far west might work great disaster to the railroads of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen of the Legislature, this is a department drawn bill, sought to be enacted into law. One man wants it. Your constitutents nor mine have not asked for nor demanded it. I am of the opinion that the departments of State should execute and interpret the laws that we of the Legislature make and we now have too many departments which seek to be the executive, the Legislature and the judicial.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz.:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the first section?

Mr. MATT. Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Bedford, Mr. Matt.

Mr. MATT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have some explanation on this bill before it passes on second reading.

Mr. SCHAD. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, desire to give you the information that this bill has been n the calendar for at least two weeeks. It is Senate Bill No. 506. It came over into this House from the Senate, nd in the Law and Order Committee it was amended. The mendments put into this bill were considered satisfactory nd I believe eliminated all of the objectionable features. f the gentleman will read the bill he can readily see that by the placing of these amendments into the bill it is satisfactory.

Mr. MATT. Mr. Speaker, I have read this bill and it may be satisfactory to some people but it is not to me. This bill provides that a license shall be issued to a brewer or a distiller by which he may send out packages containing not less than twelve pint bottles or in casks of not less than one-eighth barrel capacity. This, to my mind, is opening a mail order department for a distillery and a brewery in the State of Pennsylvania, and the brewer may ship neither beer nor whiskey into any of the dry territories by the dozen or in cases, but may be shipped in the quantities named. This has been brought about by the reason that the license question has been voted on in many of the districts or counties, and the majority rule is one of the fundamental principles of this great nation of ours. In some cases it is where the judge has refused a license by reason of a majority of the voters signing a remonstrance and it is for this cause, and for these cases, to my mind, that this bill is intended—to reach these dry territories. The distiller is not confined to his city alone in this thing, but can send it anywhere. This bill practically makes him a retailer because he can sell by the dozen or gallon, and in case a party cannot buy it at a bar for the reason that he may have probably become an habitual drunkard or because a husband has disgraced or neglected his family to such an extent that his family has ordered all bars not to sell to this individual, and this bill if it becomes a law will give such a man opportunities to get it regardless of the protest of a brother, or the protest of a sister and regardless to any one's protesting against his getting it. Is this an ideal law for American citizens to enact? Is this the way to protect American homes? Is it the way to protect American boys or is it the way to protect American daughters? I ask you. gentlemen of the House, to give this bill thorough consideration before you vote upon it and then vote it down.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, one of the primary objects of this bill which is now under consideration on second reading is the repeal of what was commonly known as the Marshall Act, approved on the twenty-first day of June Anno Domini 1897, as will appear in the last section of the bill. As that bill has been interpreted by many lawyers and some courts the breweries and the distilleries of this Commonwealth were legalized to sell the product only to such retailers as may have been licensed by the Courts. Unfortunately for them and unfortunately for it it was not the intention of this bill to limit the sale of their product to this Commonwealth alone. There were many other States in which the courts have nothing to do whatever with licensing the retail places. In many of our border States, like. for instance. the State of Ohio, the man who desires to go into the retail saloon business goes to the Treasurer of the County, pays his tax, which is assessed against him, and gets his license, and he goes down to his place of business, and if he runs it according to law he continues in business. If he infringes upon the laws of that State the Court penalizes him, under the laws of the Assembly of that State. In point of fact the Marshall bill, if carefully and closely interpreted, allowed only sale by the brewers and distillers of this Commonwealth to sell to saloons or retail places in this Commonwealth, and that is one of the things that this bill seeks to avoid. Let me go further in relation to the provisions of this bill. In the first place not one dollar of the license of the brewer or distiller goes into a County Treasury of this Commonwealth, although under the laws as they now stand the courts may grant a brewer's license or a distiller's license and if the court of any county in the Commonwealth grants a brewer's license or a distiller's license it gives him exactly the privileges which are granted to him under this bill. However, if he does not seek all of these rights to-day, a few years past he could go to the Treasurer of this Commonwealth just as is provided in this bill, and there he could obtain a license for his business which would give him almost, and I am fair about it, almost but not all of the privileges which the county courts would give him. Many brewers and many distillers availed themselves of the State license and instead of the county license they would secure a license through the Treasurer of the Commonwealth. Bear in mind, gentlemen of the House, that the same license fees are charged by the county and by the State, and paid into the State Treasury directly. The purpose of this bill is this, that instead of burdening your county courts, instead of getting your license or applying for a license in your county with the chance of being refused in the counties, instead of having the uncertainty hanging over, as it does hang over some applicants, the Treasurer of this great Commonwealth is guaranteed to do his duty according to law and he may grant a license that any county court may grant. I ask you whether or not one man who has a thorough understanding of conditions from the Eastern border of this State to the Western border, and from the Northern border to the Southern border of this Commonwealth, understanding the business as he must, and sees the fitness of things better than any one man in whose hands it may rest, or whether this business is not better than in the hands of two hundred odd judges all over this Commonwealth, and I say that without any reflection upon the judges. There is nothing in this bill that extends the privilege of the brewer any farther than it can be extended now in the county courts. This bill should pass because it will place on the statute books a law which should be there and repeals a law which should not be there, and in the next place instead of giving the distiller or the brewer any particular advantage, it avoids the uncertainty of his being refused, and compels him to withdraw his application but when he can go to the State Treasurer he has one place where he can hang his hat and that is on the hook in the State Treasurer's office.

Mr. MATT. Mr. Speaker, I should like to interrogate the gentleman.

The SPEAKER Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Allen, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ALLEN. Yes, sir.

Mr. MATT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Allen, whether or not, as the law is to-day, whether a distillery or a brewery can sell, as this bill provides, by the dozen or by the gallon?

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, instead of one dozen it is two dozen, because two dozen is a large case, and by the gallon, yes.

Mr. MATT. Mr. Speaker, is it not a fact, if this bill should pass, that the brewers could ship into all dry territory by the dozen or by the gallon?

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, they do that now.

Mr. MATT. What is the necessity for this law? Why do you ask that this bill be passed? As I understand it, you say that is what is done now; this is to make it legal.

Mr. ALLEN. On the same basis as an act that was up here for passage a few evenings ago and was voted down, on account of a special act, passed years ago, where the people in like manner have voted it out of their township.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, my understanding of this bill is that the object is to circumscribe and limit the power of the courts with respect to licensing the liquor manufacturer, the power that relates to brewers and distillers, and there ought to be some very good reason and some very strong reason why the supervisory power of the courts of the judicial districts of this Commonwealth should be interfered with, as it has been the experience of all of us that the granting or refusal of a liquor license may be safely vested in the several courts of this Commonwealth. Is there any reason why the laws which are the result of experience along that line should be changed? Is there any good reason why this power which has been tried and tested in the courts should be taken away and put in the hands of the State Treasurer or any other single official. There is nothing that has been advanced by either of the gentlemen who have spoken in favor of this bill which shows any good reason why the statutes now in force should be repealed. There is not a popular demand of this kind, because other members and myself have been flooded with protests against the passage of this measure, and any law interfering with the power of the courts in regulating the control and sale of intoxicating drink. The time, I respectfully submit, gentlemen of the House, is not now to interfere with the powers of the court, and any bill that does interfere with the powers of the courts should be unhesitatingly buried and it ought to be unhesitatingly voted down. I trust that this bill may receive the unanimous condemnation of this House.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to say a word in reply to what has been said by the gentleman from Delaware County that there is no argument in favor of this bill. I say there is not a lawyer in this House—there is no layman in this House willing to stand upon the floor of this House who will insist that any court in any cour of this Commonwealth which has voted local option prohibition has the right to grant any liquor licen whether it is for wholesale or retail, brewer or distill bottler or otherwise. Am I not right, and I ask this qu tion of the gentleman from Delaware.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. I think you are rig but I would add to that if there has been a vote in fav of local option in a district it is a good reason why license should not be granted to sell liquor in that d trict.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I will go further, and s this, that it rests at present and is vested in the bos of the courts of the various counties of this great Sta of Pennsylvania. There is nothing whatever on the statu books legalizing the liquor business which does not rest the bosom of these judges who sit on the bench, and wh these counties are made absolutely dry and rob men property value at thousands and hundreds of thousands dollars, without any opportunity to save themselves, one the purposes I may add as an argument for this bill is meet this very contingency.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, I would li to interrogate the gentleman.

THE SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Alleghen Mr. Allen, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ALLEN. Certainly.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, I would lil to ask the gentleman from Allegheny whether it is n a fact that this power has been judiciously and properly a ministered by the several courts of the Commonwealth.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I leave that question to t gentlemen of this House.

Mr. ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, in the absenc of an a swer what good reason can there be for taking this pow from the judges?

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I have already submitted wh seems to me to be one of the strongest features, and in a dition to that I will say that I believe that no court the State of Pennsylvania to-day exists but that is tryi to avoid this duty and wish it from the bottom of its so that it might escape the adjudication of the liquor licen cases.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to sa in reply to that that within two days I have been talkin with the judges of one of the courts, and one of them w has conscientious ideas upon the subject and who, while referred to the disagreeable task that was imposed upon t courts in the performance of this duty, this man of exper ence, this judge of experience, said he believed that the i terests of this great Commonwealth were best served b leaving this power where it now rests.

Mr. MOSES. Mr. Speaker, I believe, and I firmly b lieve, that the whole object of this bill as was the object some former bill of this character, is to make a hole in th Brooks High License Law; I believe that that is the obje of all these bills which we have had here during the pas few weeks, and I hope the gentlemen of this House wi vote it down.

Mr. SPEER. Mr. Speaker, I am pretty well convinced tha the defeat of local option on the floor of this House and th Republican party have all they care to carry through du ing the coming campaign. The office of a State Treasurer a political office. I would like to ask the gentleman fro Pittsburg whether he thinks that the State Treasurer more fit to select men of this character in any county tha the judge in that county.

Mr. ALLEN. If the gentleman refers that question to m I will say that that is the province and privilege of th State Treasurer under our present law. I don't live i Pittsburg, however, and desire to correct the gentleman fro Franklin.

Mr. SPEER. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman tell me wh the people should have no vote or no say at all in this matter.

Mr. ALLEN. There is no reason why the people shoul not have some say in this matter, and there is nothing i the bill to indicate that they have none.

Mr. SPEER. Mr. Speaker, they have a right to choose man to handle a question, and their preference is for th county judge. They regard that a safer place; they consider it a better place, and a better thing to do to plac the management of these affairs into the hands of one o the judges than into the hands of a man who holds a purel tical office. I hope that the gentlemen of this House, heir wisdom, will see to it that this bill falls because the le demand that it shall fall.

Ir. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interate the gentleman from Allegheny.

he SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny per- himself to be interrogated?

Ir. ALLEN. Yes, sir.

Ir. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the tleman whether by the provisions of this bill there is any retion on the part of the State Treasurer concerning the nting or refusing of license.

Ir. ALLEN. Certainly; exceptionally so. If the gentle- will read section eight on page nine he will find that vision.

Ir. ROCKWELL. I desire to read the first part of this , and if the gentleman sees anything of that kind in t bill I must admit that I don't. In the eighth section eads "a license shall not be issued to any brewer or dis- er until said brewer or distiller, he or she, or they, shall e executed a bond to the Commonwealth with a warrant attorney to confess judgment in the penal sum of five usand dollars with sufficient sureties to be approved by State Treasurer." I don't see any provision in there ving it to the discretion of the State Treasurer. It looks me as if he must grant it. It seems to me that the bill ht to be voted down.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section.

The Speaker announced that the ayes seemed to have it.

The years and nays were required by Mr. MOSES and ROCKWELL, and were as follows:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed the same without amendments.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 507, as follows:

An act to amend the first section of an act approved the twenty-ninth day of May Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and one entitled "An Act to amend section one of an act approved May the fourteenth one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four entitled 'An Act to exempt from taxation public property used for public purposes and places of religious worship places of burial not used or held for private or corporate profit and institutions of purely public charity'" hospitals universities colleges seminaries academies associations institutions of learning and benevolence by removing the exemption from all court houses jails poor houses and certain lands therein exempted not necessary for the enjoyment of the same

Whereas the present law exempting from local taxation certain real estate throughout the Commonwealth has caused an unjust burden of taxation upon the remaining tax-payers the following amendment is offered as a relief from such inequitable conditions

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the first section of an act approved the twenty-ninth day of May Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and one entitled "An Act to amend section one of an act approved May the fourteenth one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four entitled 'An Act to exempt from taxation public property used for public purposes and places of religious worship places of burial not used or held for private or corporate profit and institutions of purely public charity'" which reads as follows

"Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That all churches meeting houses or other regular places of stated worship with the grounds thereto annexed necessary for the occupancy and enjoyment of the same all burial grounds not used or held for private or corporate profit all hospitals universities colleges seminaries academies associations and institutions of learning benevolence or charity with the grounds thereto annexed and necessary for the occupancy and enjoyment of the same found endowed and maintained by public or private charity and all school houses belonging to any county borough or school district with the grounds thereto annexed and necessary for the occupancy and enjoyment of the same and all court houses and jails with the grounds thereto annexed be and the same are hereby exempted by all and every county city borough bounty road school and poor tax Provided

That all property real or personal other than that which is in actual use and occupation for the purposes aforesaid and from which any income or revenue is derived shall be subject to taxation except where exempted by law for State purposes and nothing herein contained shall exempt same therefrom and provided That all property real and personal in actual use and occupation for the purposes aforesaid shall be subject to taxation unless the person or persons association or corporation so using and occupying the same shall be seized of the legal or equitable title in the realty and possessor of the personal property absolutely" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That all churches meeting houses or other regular places of stated worship with the grounds thereto annexed necessary for the occupancy and enjoyment of the same all burial grounds not used or held for private or corporate profit all hospitals universities colleges seminaries academies associations and institutions of learning benevolence or charity with the grounds thereto annexed and necessary for the occupancy and enjoyment of the same founded endowed and maintained by public or private charity and all school houses belonging to any county borough or school district with the ground thereto annexed and necessary for the occupancy and enjoyment of the same and all court-houses jails and poor-houses with the grounds thereto annexed and necessary for the occupancy and enjoyment of the same be and the same are hereby exempted from all and every county city borough bounty road school and poor tax Provided that all land not necessary for the convenient occupancy and enjoyment of the buildings thereon erected or hereafter to be erected shall be liable and shall pay all local or municipal taxes of the district wherein located this shall not be taken to include any county tax

Provided however That the words enjoyment and occupancy as used in this act shall be construed to include only the land necessary for the convenient use of the building or buildings erected or hereafter to be erected thereon occupied and used for the purposes above described Except where exempted by law for State purposes And it is provided That all property real and personal in actual use and occupation for the purposes aforesaid shall be subject to taxation unless the person or persons association or corporation so using and occupying the same shall be seized of the legal or equitable title in the realty and possessor of the personal property absolutely

Section 2 All acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire unanimous consent to offer an amendment to the title of this bill.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware, Mr. V. Gilpin Robinson.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, here is another joint resolution, proposing an amendment to Section 7, Article 3, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania: "A joint resolution proposing an amendment to section seven article three of the Constitution of Pennsylvania so as to permit special legislation regulating labor." Before giving support to this bill—to this resolution—with the attendant expenses of advertising it, it ought to be made very clear that there is some need for legislation of this kind, going so far as to call for an amendment of the Constitution. The sponsor of this bill ought to give some very good reason why labor shall be selected, in this respect, as entitled to special legislation. I would ask the sponsor of this bill to give some good reason why this additional amendment to the Constitution should be submitted to the people and why the Commonwealth should be obliged to go to this expense.

Mr. ALBERT DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, the act of 1895 made eight hours a day the time for municipal and State work which was declared unconstitutional by some judges. In order to correct the Constitution we have offered this amendment. This applies to State and municipal work only and it is not general.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, this decision of the court declaring the eight hour law unconstitutiona was a case which violated, as I understand it, the law relating to the entering into contracts, which seems to call for the necessity of special legislation along this line, according to this bill. Why is it not eminently proper for the several municipalities of this State to be permitted to make their own contracts. They can make their contracts for any hours of labor that they choose; they can make their contracts for any price they choose; they can make any contract which they in their wisdom think is right and proper and why shall it be necessary to amend the Constitution in order that the Legislature may be authorized to pass acts which shall regulate and control the power of several municipalities who make their contracts as their wisdom shall dictate. There does not seem to be any necessity for an amendment of this kind and it does seem as if it were the proper time to discourage this. If the Constitution of Pennsylvania is to be eaten into in this way by amendments, why would it not be better to call a Constitutional convention and have the whole subject reviewed? Why shall it be necessary to endeavor to patch it up in a piece-meal way? Where is the justification for the continual recurrence of the submission of amendments, or proposals for amendments of the Constitution to the people with the attendant expenses, and particularly when the measures are along the lines of interfering with the right of the municipalities as urged in this special case.

Mr. ALBERT DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, we have been working under this act successfully since 1895. It refers only to State employes and to county employes and to city employes to-day who are working eight hours and unless we amend the Constitution they will go back to work ten or twelve hours. This bill is not general. It is for county, State and municipal districts, for school districts, and I think it ought to pass.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, I should like to interrogate the gentleman.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ALBERT DAVIS. Yes, sir.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker is there anything in the law which would prevent a municipality from making a contract with these employes limiting them to five hours or three hours or whatever hours of service they chose to name?

Mr. ALBERT DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, I don't think there is.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, what necessity is there for passing a general law or amending the Constitution of the State of Pennsylvania in order to prohibit a municipality from making a contract for less than eight hours labor, or, if necessity calls for it, for more than eight hours.

Mr. ALBERT DAVIS. In order to bind said contractors working on said work.

Mr. MAURER. Mr. Speaker, and gentlemen of the House in reply to the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Robinson, I wish to state that in Reading the municipality some years ago did draw up a contract to have certain work done and had the eight hours clause included. The contractor signed that contract, and then proceeded to carry on the work to be done, working more hours a day and the men were paid less money than the municipal law called for, and they tried to make the contractors comply with the municipal law in the courts and won out. This has been done repeatedly by other courts, having a precedence in the Reading case. I think therefore, that this Constitutional amendment is necessary and should pass.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING APPOINTMENT OF DELEGATE TO SEVENTH INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS OF ESPERANTISTS, TO BE HELD AT ANTWERP, BELGIUM.

Mr. HUNTER. Mr. President, I move that rule 39 be suspended in order to consider the resolution reported this day from the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. WOLF. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The resolution was twice read, as follows:

Whereas, The famous international language, Esperanto, intended to facilitate communication between people and races speaking different tongues, has been and is making vast strides throughout the world

Whereas, The Seventh International Congress of Esperantists will meet in Antwerp, Belgium, in August, one thousand nine hundred and eleven; and

Whereas, The students and adherents of this language are working to bring about universal peace and a closer union among the races of the world; and

Whereas, Official representatives from many nations have attended these Congresses and will attend the coming one in Antwerp; and

Whereas, The United States Government has been and will be represented officially at these Congresses; and

Whereas, It is fitting that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania should be officially represented at the Seventh Congress; therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, (if the House of Representatives concur) That the Governor is hereby authorized and directed to appoint one male citizen of this Commonwealth skilled in Esperanto, to represent this Commonwealth at the Seventh International Congress of Esperantists to be held in the city of Antwerp, Belgium, in August one thousand nine hundred and eleven. Such representative shall serve without compensation from or expense of any nature to this Commonwealth

Mr. KURTZ. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair appoints as a Committee of Conference to confer with a similar committee of the House of Representatives (if such committee be appointed) in relation to the differences existing between the two Houses upon Senate Bill No. 103, Messrs. Crow, Thomson, and Hall.

AMENDMENT TO HOUSE BILL NO. 356, RECALLED FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Chair cleared his table and laid before the Senate bill of the House of Representatives for concurence as follows:

House Bill No. 356, entitled:

An act defining what shall constitute the offense of malicious injury to railroads providing a punishment therefor fixing the punishment in case of loss of life as a result of such offense and repealing sections one hundred forty-two and one hundred forty-three of an act approved the thirty-first day of March Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty entitled "An Act to consolidate revise and amend the penal laws of this Commonwealth" and an act approved the twenty-sixth day of May Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one entitled "An Act defining the offense of the taking of human life through the wilful and malicious wrecking of cars and locomotives upon railroads in this Commonwealth" said bill having been recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment. The vote had on final passage and third reading on said bill was reconsidered in the House and the bill amended, in which amendments the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

The amendments were twice read as follows:

By striking out the entire title and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "Defining what shall constitute the offense of malicious injury to railroads providing a punishment therefor fixing the punishment in case of loss of life as a result of such offense and repealing sections one hundred and forty-two and one hundred and forty-three of an act approved the thirty first day of March Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty entitled "An Act to consolidate revise and amend the penal laws of this Commonwealth" and an act approved the twenty-sixth day of May Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one 'An Act defining the offense of the taking of human life through the wilful and malicious wrecking of cars and locomotives upon railroads in this Commonwealth;" also by inserting in section 1, line 22, after the word "such" the following: "Offense shall constitute the offense of malicious injury to railroads and every such;" also by adding a new section, to be known as Section 2, as follows:

"Section 2 That sections 142 and 143 of an act approved the thirty-first day of March Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred sixty entitled "An Act to consolidate revise and amend the penal laws of this Commonwealth" and an act approved the twenty-sixth day of May Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one entitled "An Act defining the offense of taking of [illegible]man life through the wilful and malicious wrecking of ca[illegible] and locomotives upon railroads of this Commonwealth" and all other acts or parts of acts inconsistent with or supplied by this act or any part theerof are hereby repealed."

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Private Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented communications in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which were laid upon the table.

VETO OF SENATE BILL NO. 309.

The Chair cleared his table and laid before the Senate communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 12, 1911.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Gentlemen:—I return herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 309, entitled "An Act to validate certain charters issued by the Governor of the Commonwealth to electric light companies for districts comprising two or more municipalities or townships under the thirty-fourth section of the act approved April twenty-ninth one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four entitled 'An Act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations' and its supplements."

There appears to be adequate means in existing law for the correction of the difficulty recited in this bill, without the necessity of validating charters which have been issued to electric light companies under an interpretation of statutory limitations. If any legislation is thought necessary for the correction of the defects referred to, the proposed bill goes beyond the requirements. Such a bill should do no more than confirm the charter upon condition that the corporation by proper corporate action file in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth and record in the proper county a certificate showing its election to confine its corporate activities to one of the municipalities and adjacent territory named in the charter.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

JOHN K. TENER.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass, the objection of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. CATLIN. Mr. President, I move that the question, together with the further consideration of this bill, be postponed for the present.

Mr. THOMSON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

VETO OF SENATE BILL NO. 392.

The Chair cleared his table and laid before the Senate communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 12, 1911.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Gentlemen:—I return herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 392, entitled "An Act permitting county treasurers not paid by salary to retain one-half of one per centum from monies received from liquor license fees."

I am in accord with the tendency of legislation which seeks to abolish the fee system of compensation of county officers. Where the compensation of such officers is inadequate, such increase as may be deemed necessary should be made by fixed salary and not by authorizing the retention of any part of fees collected by such officers.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

JOHN K. TENER.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass, the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. KEYSER. Mr. President, I move that the question, together with the further consideration of this bill, be postponed for the present.

Mr. FOX. Mr. President, I second the motion.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE PENNSYLVANIA DIVISION SONS VETERANS, U. S. A., FAVORING DERSHEM PENSION BILL.

The Chair cleared his table and laid before the Sena communication from Pennsylvania Division Sons of Vete ans, U. S. A., favoring Dershem Pension Bill, which wa read as follows, and referred to the Committee on Pensio and Gratuities:

Pennsylvania Division Sons of Veterans, U. S. A.
Division Secretary.
Philadelphia, May 13, 1911.

To the President and Members of the State Senate of Pen sylvania:

Gentlemen:—At a regular stated meeting of the Sons Veterans U. S. A. Association of Philadelphia and vicinity, r lutions were unanimously adopted endorsing the Dershem ension bill, now in committee in the Senate, also calling upon is committee to report same to the Senate, with a request r its immediate passage.

Pennsylvania, which is so heavily indebted to the brave men ho offered their lives in her defence, and who drove the inader from the soil of the State, in July 1863, have never reeived the proper recognition that they are entitled to and if e States of the former Confederacy can pension their soldiers e great State of Pennsylvania can do likewise.

We, the sons, grandsons, and great-grandsons, who number any voters in this Commonwealth are growing impatient ver the constant defeat of measures in favor of our sires and rand sires, and we feel that the time has arrived for us to emand their rights.

Hoping that your honorable body will comply with this request, we remain,

Respectfully,
Sons of Veterans U. S. A. of Philadelphia and Vicinity
Secretary of the Association,
HARRY A. RILEY,

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR RECOMMENDING PASSAGE OF BILL REIMBURSING GEORGE GRAY BARNARD FO MONEYS EXPENDED BY HIM ON GROUP IN FRONT OF CAPITOL

The Private Secretary to the Governor being introduced presented communication in writing from his Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 16, 1911.

Gentlemen of the Senate and House of Representatives of th Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

The Capitol Building Commission, pursuant to the authorit in them vested, contracted with the eminent sculptor, Georg Gray Barnard, for the preparation, delivery and setting i place, at the Capitol, of certain groups of marble, for the pric mentioned in the contract, to wit: $100,000.

I have received information, the truth and accuracy of whic cannot be doubted, that Mr. Barnard has actually expende the sum of $80,000 and upwards in excess of the contract price in the preparation, transportation and delivery of these beautiful groups of sculpture, which are now being placed in positio and soon to be unveiled; and I am further creditably informe that he will suffer impoverishment if he is not reimbursed fo this outlay. To my mind it would be both unjust and beneat the dignity of the Commonwealth to permit this heavy financia loss to fall upon Mr. Barnard. Aside from the commercia value of the groups, which in course of time will doubtless b worth a sum largely in excess of the present cost thereof $180,000, I think you will be quick to recognize, as I have the moral obligation resting upon the State to reimburse thi great artist for the expenditures made by him, and I am therefore sending you this message to earnestly recommend that bill be forthwith introduced making an appropriation of th amount mentioned, $80,000, to the Board of Commissioners o Public Grounds and Buildings for the purpose of reimbursin Mr. Barnard for moneys actually expended by him.

JOHN K. TENER.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to read a bill in place at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears one.

Mr. SPROUL read in his place and presented to the Chair a bill, entitled:

RESOLUTION THANKING MRS. MARY MCM. JONES FOR GIFT OF COTTAGE AT CRESSON, PA.

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representative, which was read as follows:

House of Representatives, May 16, 1911.

Whereas, Mrs. Mary McM. Jones, of Pittsburg, has given to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania her large and well appointed cottage at Cresson that it may be used by the State Department of Health in conjunction with the free sanatorium for tuberculosis now being erected on the tract of land also donated to the Commonwealth by Mr. Andrew Carnegie, and

Whereas, This gift by Mrs. Jones will not only be of great assistance in carrying on the State's work for the poor suffering with tuberculosis, but will also be a constant reminder of the noble interest which our more fortunate citizens take in those sorely afflicted, and will be an ever helpful source of encouragement to the work which the State is doing for the consumptive poor; therefore, be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That as representatives of the people the members of the Legislature do hereby express to Mrs. Mary McM. Jones the high sense of appreciation that they feel for her generous gift; and it is further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Commonwealth be instructed to have engrossed and sent to Mrs. Jones a copy of these resolutions.

Mr. KEYSER. Mr. President, I move that Rule 39 be suspended, in order to consider the resolution at this time.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The resolution was twice read, considered and agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

ing the limit of population of such counties and increasing minimum and maximum limits of said salaries

And said bill having been read at length the third ti

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. McILHENNY. Mr. President, it seems to me tirley unnecessary to raise the salaries of tipstaves of courts. I know of no job in the courts that is more ple ant than that of a tipstaff. It requires no physical or ot labor, and in my judgment they are getting a salary wh is sufficiently high for the character of the employment,
I think this bill should not pass.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. KEYSER. Mr. President, I move that the questi together with the further consideration of the bill, be p

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was not agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the second section?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I move to amend sectio two, line three, by striking out the words ‘‘or to lead life of prostitution.’’

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, this to my mind is not matter of jest, and I have the boldness to get on this floo l back my amendment. I say this is one of the most ious pieces of legislation that an attempt is being made pass at this time, affecting the Commonwealth of Penn-vania, and there are men here who I believe are not ting in accordance with their honest convictions. I am l to think I am right in this matter, and I think we ght not to pass a bill that will place in the hands of moral women an opportunity and chance to blackmail e youth of our Commonwealth, and would be an ever-sting disgrace to the State of Pennsylvania. It may be oked upon in jest. It may be looked upon in frivolity, d I place my morality on as high a standard as any her member in this Senate to-night, but I say a piece legislation that would make a poor unfortunate man young man pay a penalty of ten years for fornition, when our statutes only punishes adultery with a nalty of two years, is foolish and simple legislation, and ask in the name of fairness, all that is right and fair, think of the condition of the young men, particularly this Commonwealth, should they be foolish, that the embers of the Senate watch what they are doing here -night. Any prostitute or harlot that walks the streets this great Commonwealth can use it to blackmail any an that they want to if they see the opportunity or dere to do so, and for the fair name of Pennsylvania I and here now and say that there is no White Slave isiness within the confines of this State. We need no ich legislation and there is no reason for it. Every ffense that you may punish by this act which you are ying to pass now is punishable by acts that are now on e statute books, and only the day before yesterday in e city of Philadelphia a man was convicted on the charge f being what is commonly called a pimp. It is not a leasant thing to get upon the floor and talk about a easure like this, but I say it is vicious legislation, and laces in the hands of immoral women the opportunity blackmail the sons of some of the most prominent en in this Commonwealth. We do not need this legslation. There is no White Slave traffic in Pennsylania, and I am proud to say that anybody who knows e history of our State and what is going on cannot elp but agree with me. This is foolish legislation. This iece of legislation would blacken Pennsylvania, and will o it no good.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was not agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the third section?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I move to amend section , line 10, by striking out the word "presumptive."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was not agreed to.

PETITIONS.

PROTESTING AGAINST THE KLINE BILL.

Mr. FERGUSON presented the petition of citizens of Cumberland County, protesting against the Kline Bill.

Which was referred to the Committee on Law and Order.

The Chair laid before the House the following report, which was read and ordered to be spread upon the Journal:

REPORT FROM COMMISSIONER OF FISHERIES.

To the Speaker and Members of the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Gentlemen:—I am in receipt of a resolution from your honorable body dated March 13, 1911, "that the Department of Fisheries is hereby requested to furnish to the House of Representatives, as soon as practicable, a statement of the exact or approximate number of pounds of fish and the value of the same, taken in the waters of the State during the years of 1908, 1909 and 1910."

In conformity with the above I herewith submit what data I have in my possession.

There is no law under which those who catch game fish in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for sport can be compelled to make returns to the department of their catch and at present there are no effective means by which the Department of Fisheries can get into communication with every angler in the Commonwealth and secure his catch, although the department is now formulating a plan by which in another year it is hoped that a large percentage of the number of fish caught by anglers will be reported. That the number of fish caught by anglers in Pennsylvania reaches large proportions is shown by the returns made by three organizations in Pennsylvania having an aggregate membership of about three hundred. According to these returns the catch of trout by the members of the three clubs was as follows:

In 1908, 10,194 brook trout; in 1909, 8,624; in 1910, 11,410. The aggregate weight of these 30,228 fish was approximately 10,041 pounds, the wholesale market value of which was $4,016. The catch of trout by these three clubs is only an infinitesimal part of the catch of brook trout in Pennsylvania.

One of the three clubs in addition to its catch of trout made the following catch of bass, pickerel, perch and lake trout:

In 1908, 1,774; 1909, 513; 1910, 1,101, or a total for the three years of 3,388. These with the 27,228 trout, make 30,616 fish caught by the three clubs in three years. The total number of clubs in the State directly interested in fishing is about 200.

Under the law it is possible to secure an intelligent idea of the number of fish caught for the market in Pennsylvania, together with their weight and value. The principal sources of supply are the fisheries in the waters of Lake Erie under the jurisdiction of Pennsylvania, the Delaware River, the Susquehanna and its tributaries, also the commercial trout industry. The following are the figures:

1908.	Pounds.	Value.
White fish	394,763	$31,580.14
Lake herring	3,816,691	90,108.07

Suckers and mullets, Susquehanna and tributaries	7,242	420.
Carp, Susquehanna and tributaries	4,688	241.
Total	13,908,598	$657,215.

The figures given for the fish taken from the Delawa River are not strictly accurate owing to the intersales Philadelphia dealers, but the figures may be given as min mum. It is estimated from unofficial reports that t value of the game fish caught in Pennsylvania is at lea one-half of that of the commercial fisheries and the mon expended at least as much.

The above is respectfully submitted.

WILLIAM E. MEEHAN,
Commissioner of Fisheries.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Gentlemen:—I have the honor to advise you that I have this day approved and signed House Bill No. 227, entitled "An Act authorizing county auditors of the several counties of this Commonwealth to employ counsel to advise them in their official capacity and providing that the compensation of such counsel shall be paid out of the funds of the proper county."

(Signed) JOHN K. TENER.

He also presented:

APPROVAL OF HOUSE BILL NO. 324.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 11, 1911.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Gentlemen:—I have the honor to advise you that I have this day approved and signed House Bill No. 324, entitled "An Act to require fire drills in public schools."

(Signed) JOHN K. TENER.

He also presented:

APPROVAL OF HOUSE BILL NO. 299.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 12, 1911.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Gentlemen:—I have the honor to advise you that I have this day approved and signed House Bill No. 299, entitled "An Act providing that all legal notices now required by law to be published in weekly newspapers may be published in daily newspapers in counties having a population of less than one million inhabitants."

(Signed) JOHN K. TENER.

He also presented:

APPROVAL OF HOUSE BILL NO. 323.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 12, 1911.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Gentlemen:—I have the honor to advise you that I have this day approved and signed House Bill No. 323, entitled "An Act to amend an act entitled 'An Act to regulate the fees of tipstaves in judicial districts containing more than one hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants and less than five hundred thousand inhabitants' approved the fifth day of March Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and three by further regulating the salary of tipstaves and court criers in judicial districts containing more than one hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants and less than two hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants."

(Signed) JOHN K. TENER.

He also presented:

APPROVAL OF CONCURRENT RESOLUTION.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 12, 1911.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Gentlemen:—I have the honor to advise you that I have this day approved and signed Concurrent Resolution from the Senate and House of Representatives authorizing the appointment of a joint committee to co-operate with the National Committee for the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of peace among English speaking people.

(Signed) JOHN K. TENER.

He also presented:

APPROVAL OF HOUSE BILL NO. 274.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 12, 1911.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Gentlemen:—I have the honor to advise you that I have this day approved and signed House Bill No. 274, entitled "An Act empowering the commissioners of any first class township of this Commonwealth without petition of property owners to grade pave curb macadamize and otherwise improve public streets or thoroughfares or parts thereof when said streets or thoroughfares or parts thereof do not exceed one thousand feet in length and connect two streets or thoroughfares theretofore paved and improved and providing for the assessment of a portion of the costs of the same on the owners of property abutting thereon and the collection thereof."

(Signed) JOHN K. TENER.

He also presented:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 175.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 12, 1911.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Gentlemen:—I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 175, entitled "An Act providing that where municipalities are vested with the power of acquiring property by condemnation proceedings for any purpose whatsoever that the title to be acquired by the said municipalities shall be the fee simple title thereof."

There does not appear to be any real necessity for this legislation. To change the existing law, as for instance in the case of the opening of the street or highway, the title of the soil of which open street or highway now remains in the abutting owners to the center of such street or highway, subject only to the public easement, would, in my judgment, be unwise.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

(Signed) JOHN K. TENER.

Mr. BREITINGER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this veto be laid upon the table.

Mr. BARTMAN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

He also presented

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 343.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 12, 1911.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Gentlemen:—I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 343, entitled "An Act authorizing water companies and certain Commissioners of Water Works in cities of the third class to extend their pipes beyond the city limits and supply water to persons corporations and municipalities within the county and regulating the supplying of water."

The purpose of this bill is to provide that all water companies and Commissioners of Water Works having in their names the title of water works in cities of the third class shall have the right and are hereby authorized and empowered to extend the water pipes of any such water works beyond the bounds of the cities wherein they are located into the county and municipalities of the county about said cities and to furnish water to any and all corporations persons and municipalities in the counties in which such water works are located.

A similar bill was disapproved on April 20, 1905, for the reason that to permit such municipalities as have the right to secure the waters of the Commonwealth by the exercise of eminent domain to sell water companies would be indirectly to renew the difficulties which were intended to be accomplished by the passage of the Act of 1905, taking away the right of eminent domain from these corporations and for the further reason that to permit municipalities to enter into the business of selling water to private corporations would be to allow them to do something outside their functions.

In these objections I concur, and therefore withhold my pproval from the bill.

(Signed) JOHN K. TENER.

Mr. HOOVER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this veto be laid upon the table.

Mr. SCHOFIELD. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

He also presented

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 319.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 12, 1911.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Gentlemen:—I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 319, entitled "An Act to provide for the punishment of persons responsible for or contributing to the delinquency of children."

Similar bills were vetoed by two of my predecessors in office, on the ground that the language used was so ambiguous and uncertain that the criminal offense proposed to be created was not clearly defined. I am not satisfied that the criminal offense which this bill proposes to create and punish is described with the certainty which should be used in creating new misdemeanors, nor is any indication given relative to what kind of acts are to be construed as wilfully or negligently causing, encouraging or contributing to the delinquency of children.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

(Signed) JOHN K. TENER.

Mr. YOUNG. Mr. Speaker, I move that this veto be laid upon the table.

Mr. BENTLEY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

He also presented

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 125.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 12, 1911.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Gentlemen:—I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 125, entitled "An Act entitled an act to provide for the destruction and to prevent the spread of certain noxious weeds making it the duty of owners of land upon which such weeds grow to cut the same so as to prevent their going to seed making it the duty of supervisors to cut or destroy such weeds on or along public highways and providing penalties for failure to comply with the provisions of the act."

The title of this bill does not clearly express the subject of the proposed legislation to those who are specially interested therein, as required by the Constitution. The title of the bill is to provide for the destruction and to prevent the spread of certain noxious weeds, and makes it the duty of "owners of land upon which such weeds grow to cut the same," under penalty, and makes it the duty of supervisors to cut or destroy such weeds on or along public highways, under a like penalty.

No notice is given in the title that the bill applies to persons other than the owners of land or supervisors. An examination of the bill, however, discloses that it is intended to apply not only to owners of land but also to all persons having seated lands in charge by lease or otherwise.

For this reason the bill is not approved.

(Signed) JOHN K. TENER.

Mr. MOSES. Mr. Speaker, I move that this veto be laid upon the table.

Mr. ALTER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

He also presented:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 168.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 12, 1911.

To the Honorable the House of Representativesof the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:—I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 168, entitled "An Act regulating lateral railroads and providing for and regulating the taking of lands and materials by the same."

The power of eminent domain to be conferred by this bill for the purpose of constructing a lateral railroad is, in my judgment, too broad and unrestricted both in respect to the grantees of such power and in respect to the character of the property which may be condemned.

For this reason the bill is not approved.

JOHN K. TENER.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this veto be laid upon the table.

Mr. MORRIS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

He also presented:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 233.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 12, 1911.

To the Honorable the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:—I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 233, entitled "An Act to validate certain elections held between the tenth day of April Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and five and the first day of May Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and nine upon the question of increasing the indebtedness of couties cities boroughs townships school districts or other incorporated districts or municipalities of this Commonwealth all bonds issued pursuant to such election and the indebtedness represented by such bonds."

As stated in my reasons for the disapproval of House Bill No. 114, legislation of this character is in effect local and special to the municipality affected thereby, thus establishing a want of uniformity in the law, and therefore it ought not to be encouraged.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

JOHN K. TENER.

Mr. R. P. HUNTER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this veto be laid upon the table.

Mr. DERSHEM. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

He also presented:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 246.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 12, 1911.

To the Honorable the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:—I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 246, entitled "An Act permitting building associations or other corporations whose charters have expired or whose affairs have been wound up to satisfy mortgages."

In my judgment, the summary provisionss of this bill are objectionable. The proper method to be pursued for the satisfaction of the mortgages referred to, would be by judicial proceeding after proper notice and hearing, as required by the act of June 11, 1879 (P. L. 141).

For this reason the bill is not approved.

JOHN K. TENER.

Mr. WILCOX. Mr. Speaker, I move that this veto be laid upon the table.

Mr. WM. WARD, JR. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

He also presented:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 275.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 12, 1911.

To the Honorable the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:—I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 275, entitled "An Act to authorize municipalities to provide for the regulation and inspection of weights and measures and to provide punishment for the violation of such regulations."

This bill is unnecessary, in view of the fact that House Bill No. 221 has been approved, which is a more comprehensive bill upon the same subject.

For this reason House Bill No. 275 is not approved.

JOHN K. TENER.

Mr. KEENE. Mr. Speaker, I move that this veto be laid upon the table.

Mr. GIBSON. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

He also presented:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 326.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 12, 1911.

To the Honorable the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:—I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 326, entitled "An Act to amend sections two and three of an act entitled 'An Act defining and regulating escheats in cases where property is without a lawful owner and providing for more convenient proceedings relative to the same' approved the second day of May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine extending the same to other cases of escheats.

The subject matter of this bill is sufficiently covered by House Bill No. 306, which I have already approved.

For this reason I withhold my approval from the bill.

JOHN K. TENER.

Mr. SCHOFIELD. Mr. Speaker, I move that this veto be laid upon the table.

Mr. CURRIER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 329.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 12, 1911.

To the Honorable the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:—I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 329, entitled "An Act to reorganize the Department of Internal Affairs and to fix the number of salaries of officers clerks and employes therein."

After careful consideration of this bill, I am not convinced that the increases authorized by its provisions are justified.

For this reason the bill is not approved.

JOHN K. TENER.

Mr. CHAS. ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that this veto be laid upon the table.

Mr. WILLIAM CONNOR. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

RESOLUTION.

Mr. KLUMP asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer an resolution at this time which was twice read, considered and agreed to as follows:

THANKING MRS. MARY M'M. JONES FOR THE COTTAGE AT CRESSON, GIVEN TO THE COMMONWEALTH FOR THE USE OF TUBERCULOSIS PATIENTS.

In the House of Representatives, May 16, 1911.

Whereas, Mrs. Mary McM. Jones of Pittsburg has given to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, her large and well-appointed cottage at Cresson that it may be used by the State Department of Health in conjunction with the free sanatorium for tuberculosis now being erected on the tract of land also donated to the Commonwealth by Mr. Andrew Carnegie, and

Whereas, This gift by Mrs. Jones will not only be of great assistance in carrying on the State's work for the poor suffering with tuberculosis, but will also be a constant reminder of the noble interest which our more fortunate citizens take in those sorely afflicted, and will be an ever helpful source of encouragement to the work which the State is doing for the consumptive poor, therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That as representatives of the people the members of the Legislature do hereby express to Mrs. Mary McM. Jones the high sense of appreciation that they feel for her generous gift, and it is further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Commonwealth be instructed to have engrossed and sent to Mrs. Jones, a copy of these resolutions.

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 678, entitled:

An act to amend the first section of an act entitled "An Act making it unlawful to trespass upon land posted as private property and providing the penalty thereof" approved the fourteenth day of April Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and five limiting the lands to which the provisions of said act shall apply to cultivated and improved lands within the Commonwealth and to the wood lot adjacent thereto and upon which a seated land tax is paid

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. MARVIN. Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Pike, Mr. Marvin.

Mr. MARVIN. This is a bill which will interest every man owning land in Pennsylvania. It is a bill that every farmer in the country is against and should be against and a bill against which every member in this House should vote. It strikes me that a man who owns land, whether he uses it for farming purposes or whatever purpose he may use it, should have something to say in regard to who shall trespass on it. It will take away from the owner of land the right to say whether that land shall be turned upon by the public or not. I tell you that bill is a dangerous one and should be defeated.

Mr. HORACE B. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Pike is wrong in his conclusions regarding this bill. This bill, if passed, will not hurt the farmer. This bill can do no harm to the farmer, either up in our county or in any other county of this State. The farmers are well represented here and I hope the farmers' representatives here to-day will vote for this bill and I want to deny the assertion that it will harm the farmers at all. I appreciate the fact that every body should have fair play.

Mr. MARVIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Huntingdon permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HORACE B. DUNN. Yes, sir.

Mr. MARVIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman if he owned a piece of timber land whether o not under this bill, if it passed, it were possible for any one, hobo or anybody else, to freely trespass over his land. and if he would be willing to have everyone and every hobo do so.

Mr. HORACE B. DUNN. Every hobo?

Mr. MARVIN. Yes, sir, every hobo or anybody else If you had a piece of timber land, if this bill passes any one would have the right to trespass on it.

Mr. HORACE B. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I don't think thi bill interferes with the present law on that subject in thi respect at all.

Mr. MARVIN. Have you read it?

Mr. HORACE B. DUNN. Yes, sir, I have read thi bill and I know what is in it, and you and I have talke about it in the Committee of the Judiciary General, an you know that it will not hurt the farmer or anybody else

Mr. MARVIN. Mr. Speaker, and gentlemen of th House, this bill will hurt every country district, and I a certainly going to vote against it, and I think every othe country member should do so.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, I am satisfied that the gen tleman from Pike, Mr. Marvin, has explained this bill fairly and to the satisfaction generally of farmers, and those wh actually know anything about farming. There has bee an effort made for the last four or six years to repeal thi law. For my part, as I understand the situation, this la as it stands, I am satisfied, is the only protection a farme has to-day from trespassing on his land and should no be repealed, and as Mr. Marvin has suggested, if this la is repealed, hobos, and tramps and gypsies or any othe class of people who chose to do so, and who are travelin through the country will trespass on your land and yo have no right to molest them, and if they really do injur whether trifling or otherwise, you must prove that you hav sustained a certain amount of damage before you can d anything to protect your own property. I hope the mem bers of this House will give this bill fair consideratio and vote it down.

Mr. HORACE B. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, corporation came in here and told the members who represent farme in this house, two years ago, that it was for their benefi and at that time none of the farmers either asked for i or objected to it at all.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is making statement that cannot be borne out by the facts.

Mr. HORACE B. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I could have go ten a bill through then and the farmers didn't care a sna one way or the other.

Mr. EHRHARDT. Mr. Speaker, the gentlemen who a talking on this bill, in my estimation, are all in the wron in regard to the protection of the owner of land or partie owning the land, it does not open up the property to every body and give everybody the right to trespass withou redress because it does not repeal the original act.

And said bill having been read at length the third tim considered and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted n the affirmative, the question was determined in the ffirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate or concurrence.

The SPEAKER. The hour has arrived for Special Order n Third Reading of House Bill No. 899.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideraion of House Bill No. 899, entitled:

> An act prescribing the liability of an employer to make comensation for injuries received by an employe in the course f employment establishing an elective schedule of compensaon and regulating procedure for the determination of liability nd compensation thereunder

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware, Mr. V. ilpin Robinson.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to nterrogate the gentleman who is the sponsor for this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. ames Dunn, permit himself to be interrogated.

Mr. JAMES DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, I would ask he gentleman whether a bill similar to this one has not ust been declared unconstitutional by the courts of New ork, under the New York Constitution, and under the onstitution of the United States, and I would like to ask he gentleman wherein does this bill differ from that one.

Mr. JAMES DUNN. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the genleman, according to the information that I have received bill exactly similar to this bill has passed the Legislaure in New Jersey, and is now upon the Statute books of hat State. I am informed that that bill has been subnitted to the leading constitutional lawyers of New Jerey and that it has been pronounced constitutional accordng to their ideas.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, I again deire to ask the gentleman whether the bill in New York, imilar to this one, was not declared unconstitutional beause it was taking private property without due process f law and whether it is not a fact that this bill does preisely the same thing.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the entleman from Delaware County I wish to say that this ill is not similar to the bill which was declared uncontitutional in New York State. In the State of New York t was mandatory, and it was decided there to be unconstituional on that account. This bill gives the option to paries who may enter into a contract having this bill to act r not to act.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, as I understand the gentleman from Philadelphia, this bill is to be saved from the constitutional objection because of a written contract; is that correct?

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I hardly see that there is a constitutional objection to this bill, as of course proceedings cannot be taken without due process of law. For instance, there can be damages assessed which would be contrary to the process of law as established by our Constitution. This act has been offered for the purpose of overcoming the objection that has been made to the New York State bill. It was declared there to be unconstitutional to the Federal and the State Constitution, and I have no knowledge, personally, no further knowledge as to the merit or demerit of the bill. I am merely referring to the point that I heard discussed relating to what I heard in a discussion upon this constitutional question.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call attention to line 7 of section 1, which says, "the employer is the natural and proximate cause compensation therefore by his employer provided the employee was himself not wilfully negligent at the time of receiving such injury, and the question of whether the employee was wilfully negligent shall be one of fact to be submitted to the jury."

Mr. ALTER. Mr. Speaker, I think I can answer that question if I may be permitted.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. Certainly; this is a very important bill and is far-reaching, and my sole purpose is to have it understood by the members of this House. I don't desire to consume public time unnecessarily, but this bill is too important a one upon which to vote blindly.

Mr. ALTER. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman will read the whole of the first section, particularly the sixth line, he will notice that the language as quoted refers to a case where the injury to the employe is the result of the negligence of the employer. Now, this bill provides two methods: it provides either the method for which this graded schedule has provided, a method of compensation for the injury of a person, regardless as to whether that injury is or is not caused by the negligence of the employer, and then it provides the alternative remedy of the ordinary action at law, such as we now have, in cases where the employer and the employe have not at the time of the hiring, or within a limited period after the passage of this act, agreed to this method of graded compensation. There is absolutely no compulsion about this act as to this graded scale of compensation, and as the gentleman from Philadelphia has stated that is the distinction between this act and the New York act, which has recently been held to be unconstitutional because the New York act made it the absolute duty and obligation of the employer to compensate the employe for his injury, no matter whether it occurred through the negligence of the employer or not, and that was unconstitutional, making a man pay for something which may have occurred through no fault of his, but this act provides that at the time of the hiring it shall be at the option of the employer or employe whether or not, in case of injury of the employe, he shall be put to an action of law where it shall be proved that the employer was or was not guilty of negligence, or whether the employer and employe shall agree to a peaceable adjustment in the adjustment of a case of an employe's injury, and fixing the compensation for such injury provided by this act, and whether that humane method shall go into operation between employer and employe is now the question in regard to this bill.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, I want to ask the gentleman whether under this construction of this law if an employe enters to work in his mill and at the time that he employed him he had him sign a contract that the parties were not to be bound by this act if it would be an act to relieve the employer of any obligation.

Mr. ALTER. Mr. Speaker, if at the time of the employing of the party, when the party signed the contract, it was agreed that they were not to be bound by the schedule of compensation provided by this act, then, undoubtedly, the employer would be relieved from paying that schedule of compensation, but in the event of the injury to the employe resulting out of the negligence of the employer the employe would have the right to bring action at law to receive whatever amount the jury might give him for his injury.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. Under the terms of this act, if a man is injured while in the employ of another and the employer is not able to prove that it was the willful act of the employe that he was injured, must he pay according to this schedule the compensation or would a jury settle that.

Mr. ALTER. Mr. Speaker, no. The gentleman surely has not read this act through. If the contract between the employer and the employe excludes this schedule of compensation provided in the act, and the employe receives an injury, then he must bring his action at law, and in that action at law he must prove affirmatively to the jury that this injury was the result of the negligence of his employer, just as he would be required to do now, but he is relieved, as he ought to be relieved, of the defense of the fellow-workman.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. I desire to ask another question: Would this bill apply to farms? That is to say, if a man had a farm hand employed upon his farm, and the farm hand fell from a moving machine and was injured, would the farmer be obliged to pay the compensation fixed by this act.

Mr. ALTER. If the schedule of compensation provided in this act was in force between the farmer and his employe at the time the employe was hurt, or he did not agree that this schedule would apply between them, then if the farm hand fell from a moving machine and got hurt the farmer would or would not have to abide by this schedule, according to whether he had or had not made an agreement. We cannot make one law for a miner and another law for a farmer. This act naturally applies to all classes.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, if the employe should fall from this mowing machine and die as the result of the injury therefrom, to whom would the farmer be compelled to make compensation?

Mr. ALTER. That is provided in the schedule which the gentleman can observe by reference to the schedule.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, I turn to section 6 of the act, saying "in case of death compensation shall be computed, but not distributed, on the following basis." Under those conditions a farmer would be obliged to pay the widow of the deceased, according to line 4 of section 6, "a minimum of twenty-five per centum of wages of the deceased, with ten per centum additional for each orphan." Does that specify twenty-five per cent. of his wages during her lifetime? In other words, if the man is sixty years of age and as a farm hand he falls from a machine to his death and leaves a widow twenty years old, I want to know whether the farmer would be obliged to pay twenty-five per centum of his wages to her during her whole life.

Mr. ALTER. Mr. Speaker, there is a period of time fixed in the act.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, I don't see any period fixed.

Mr. ALTER. There is a period of time fixed in the act upon which the payments may be computed by a lump sum at the time of death.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. This is an important bit of information for us to know, under these conditions, how long a farmer would be obliged to pay twenty-five per cent. of the wages the husband earned before death to the widow after his death.

Mr. ALTER. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman will read on page 8, beginning with line 26, he will find the following: "the compensation in case of death shall be subject to a maximum compensation of ten dollars per week and a minimum of five dollars per week, provided that if at the time of injury the employe receives wages of less than five dollars per week the compensation shall be the full amount of such wages per week. This compensation shall be paid during three hundred weeks."

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. Then the compensation in that instance at ten dollars a week would be three thousand dollars—is that correct?

Mr. ALTER. Mr. Speaker, a minimum of fifteen hundred dollars and a maximum of three thousand dollars.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. In addition to that there would be the payments to be made to the minor children, would there not?

Mr. ALTER. Mr. Speaker, in line 7 it gives the variations of the schedule based on the number of children.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to know whether or not this would apply to householders? That is to say, if a man has a maid or a cook in his employ in his household, and if she falls downstiars, or if she burns herself while engaged in cooking, whether this act would apply, unless he had been careful enough and gotten a written contract at the time of the hiring of this servant, specifying that this act should not apply.

Mr. ALTER. Mr. Seaker, this act would apply if it was desired by the parties that it should apply. It it was agreed by the parties that it should not apply, then the householder would have to pay a servant for any injury unless that injury was the result of negligence on the part of the householder.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, then he would be obliged, for this protection, when he employed household help, to have a written contract; this would be necessary in order to protect himself?

Mr. ALTER. Mr. Speaker, if he desired to so protect himself I can see no difficulty about his doing so.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, suppose he did not protect himself, would he be liable to these penalties?

Mr. ALTER. These are compensations agreed upon at the time of the contract.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, is it not a fact, according to section 3 of this act, "if an employer enters into a contract, written or verbal, with an independent contractor"—that is to say, if he would make a contract for putting up a building or a contract for digging a ditch or doing anything else about his premises, and puts the work into the hands of an independent contractor, and is injured, and if a person in the employ of an independent contractor is injured, the employer is liable.

Mr. ALTER. The gentleman's statement is substantially correct. In section 3 it states, "if such contractor enters into a contract, written or verbal, with a sub-contractor to do all or any part of such work comprised in such contractor's contract with the employer, such contract or sub-contract shall not bar the liability of the employer under this act for injury," thereby it removed one of the most subtle and most successful methods by which men have been able to escape the consequences of their own neglect.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, is it not a fact that under the terms of this act the burden is on the employer? That is to say, if a man were in the field running a mowing machine and nobody there but himself, and an injury happened to him, that the burden would be upon the employer, but proof that it was the wilful negligence of the man who was hurt would be hard to secure. There it would be a question, under the terms of the act, where proof of wilful negligence would be missing.

Mr. ALTER. Such a case may arise. The question, however, would not be a relevant question. If the schedule provided in this section were enforced between the parties I apprehend that in almost every case of hiring the method provided in this act would be enforced, and the employer would have himself protected by accident insurance, which could be secured at a very reasonable rate. He can thus protect himself, and, under the conditions, force upon the employe the same privilege, and by reason of some accident which would be beyond his control and the control of his employer, losing an arm or a leg, and then our civilization is disgraced by a man limping around selling lead pencils or going to the poorhouse and being a burden on the community—this condition is to be eliminated by this bill, and I submit that this act is a progressive act, not to be stricken down without consideration, or we can by calling attention to those few isolated instances which may cause some little inconvenience to some employer.

Mr. V. GILPIN. Mr. Speaker, is it not a fact that all of the benefits derived from this bill would be attained by passing an act removing the fellow servant requirement and the contributory negligence rule?

Mr. ALTER. Mr. Speaker, I should say not. I should say if those rules were removed and some reasonable system of compensation, such as provided in this act, were not provided, then the situation of the employer would be absolutely in danger. By this bill, which is a fair one, there is an opportunity to do justice, and at the same time it is possible of having justice done.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, possibly it is not popular to make a protest against any legislation which apparently is in the interest of labor, but any man who stands upon the floor of this House would be derelict in his duty and would lack courage unless he called attention to legislation which, while apparently in favor of labor, is against the general interest of labor. There are evils to be met. There is, with respect to the law of negligence, a rule that a man shall not recover damages where the injury is the result of the negligence of a fellow servant, and that does not appeal to any fair-minded man. But that evil can be corrected by legislation to the effect that this rule of law shall no longer prevail, and such legislation has been declared to be and is unconstitutional. Another unfair rule is that a man shall not be permitted to recover damages where he has been guilty of contributory negligence in the slightest degree. There is no man but what has been impressed by the unfairness of this rule, and that can be eliminated by an act of Assembly which will do away with it; but is it wise to pass a law of this kind? Is it wise to meet these two objections, or that objection which can be met by direct legislation directed especially to these two features of the law? Is it wise to pass an act as far-reaching as this? Is it wise to trample on the industries of Pennsylvania? Is it wise to hamper an employer, no matter whether he employ one person, or whether he employs a number of persons, by making him absolutley responsible for any injury that may happen to that employe, unless he can show that the man was wilfully negligent, or that he was intoxicated, or for some other reason? Is it wise to put every employer of labor into this position and to put the burden upon him? To put him into a position of that kind, he must either obtain a right, as the gentleman says, at the time of employment, or else must give an insurance compensation and pay a large amount for insurance aginst liability for negligence. My only purpose, Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, is simply to have this bill ventilated and clearly understood, that we may know just what we are voting for—that we may clearly understand just what additional burden is probably to be put upon every empolyer of labor in Pennsylvania. Whether it be the householder, or whether it be the farmer, or whether it be the manufacturer, or whether it be the railroad company, or whether it be whatever it may, I leave the question to the good judgment of the members of this House.

The previous question having been moved by the requisite number, under the rule the question was:

Shall the main question now be put?

It was agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?
